

Students present 'Cheaper by the Dozen'

Anne (Melissa Brannan), Martha (Heather Reed), and Ernestine (Carrie Campbell) sit patiently awaiting permission.

Ernestine (Carrie Campbell) and Frank (Matt Phillips) play checkers and listen while Dad (Four Mooney) lectures them.

Students present One-Act Play

Kermit High School students presented the one-act play, "The Cop and The Anthem." The play dealt with the struggles of a homeless man. Shown (l-r) are Matt Phillips, Larenda Day, Lauren Nutt, Matt Reynolds, John Carnes, Jeremy Wallace, Four Mooney, Brandon Mueth, Liberty Lentz, Carrie Campbell, and Kendra Walker.

The star broke his leg prior to the District ULL Competition, but Sponsor-Director Jenny Erwin adapted the play for the contest the last week in March. In spite of his broken leg, Matt Phillips received Honorable Mention All-Star Cast when he competed at District ULL.
