

Awards of Excellence

This year's 16 honor graduates are, from left: Stephen Senn, Siria Garcia, Melissa Brannan, Kim Kasner, Kathryn Fogle, Jaime Flores, Karla Kasner, Kyle Phillips, Amanda Brown, Robin Trammell, Marci Parks, Chris Beard, Jeremy Rivera, Krissy Mooney, Laura Houston and Kris Grupe.

Stephen Senn, center, is the 1996 valedictorian and received the Award of Excellence in both Mathematics and Science. Shown from left, are: his mother, Margaret Senn; Heidi Krutzfeldt, math teacher; Stephen; David Whigham, science teacher; and his father, Royce Senn.

Jesse Caballero was recognized as Most Outstanding Art student. He is shown with Lyn Jones, art teacher, left, and his mother Matilda Caballero.

Samantha Morrison, center, received special recognition as a State UIL Solo Twirler qualifier. The presentation was named by John Mayo, band director, who was unable to be present at the dinner. Shown with Samantha are her mother, Mary Franklin, and DeWayne Wallace, KHS principal who made the presentation.

UIL Science Team received special recognition for placing third in State. from left: Sponsor David Whigham, Stephen Senn, Reese Graves, Daniel Lowe and Chris Senn.

Kathryn Fogle was named Most Outstanding both in Social Studies and Business. Shown, from left, are her parents, George and Donna Fogle; Kathryn; and Shannon Nutt, business teacher. Mario Heredia, government teacher was involved in a playoff baseball game Thursday night.

John and Candace Reed, left, are shown with their daughter, Heather Reed, who was named Most Outstanding Journalism student by her teacher, Martha Brewer.

Siria Garcia, KHS salutatorian, was recognized as Most Outstanding Foreign Language student. Shown from left, are her dad, Juan Garcia, Siria, her mother, Olivia Garcia, and Mariza Sanchez, Spanish teacher.

DeValle and DeLynn Trammell are shown with their daughter, Robin Trammell who received the Award of Excellence as Most Outstanding English student from her teacher, Dan Evans, right.

Donovan Pallanes, choir director, left, presented Most Outstanding Choral Music student Melissa Brannan, shown with her parents Dona and Mack Brannan.

Three KHS students received special recognition as State UIL Choral Music Solo qualifiers by Donovan Pallanes, choir director. Shown with their parents, from left, are Dona, Melissa and Mack Brannan; Martha, Paige and Mike Foster; and Linda, Rachel and J.M. Overman; and Pallanes.