

Bill Southern portrayed the stage manager, narrator of the play.

One of the outstanding characters, Simon Stimson, the town drunk, was played by Bob Knox. Playing the antique organ was Sharon Mulsow.

The four young people seated on the right were from Wayland Baptist College in Plainview. They provided entertainment for the banquet.

Juniors Present 'Our Town'

Kermit High School's Junior Class play, "Our Town," was presented on December 8 and 9. The play was written by Thornton Wilder. Mr. Paul Wilmoth was director of the play, while Richard Etheredge was student director.

The play was presented with a minimum of scenery and a maximum of lighting. The play was difficult to perform because it was pantomimed.

Baptist Banquet Honors Seniors

On January 22 the women of the First Baptist Church sponsored a banquet in honor of the graduating seniors. Mrs. Brumlow, president of WMU, gave the welcome, and Dede Lancaster,

Senior Class president, gave the response.

The decorations were in western setting, and the food was served ranch-style.

The entertainment was enjoyable, the food delicious, and the decorations beautiful.
