

Mr. Austin Sibert was the guest speaker for the banquet. Left to right: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jetton, and Mr. and Mrs. Sibert.

Banquet Ends '61 Season

On January 27, the Athletic Department of Kermit High School sponsored a football banquet for the A & B squad players and their dates. Judy Petree sang If I Loved You from Carousel and Billy Funderburk played Overshadowed, a trumpet solo. The guest speaker was Mr. Austin Sibert, a minister, from Midland.

Students enjoy the excellent food served by the Freshman team.

Boys check in uniforms as they end the 1961-1962 season.

Peggy Kern, played by Sharon Dean, invites Anastasia Shultz, played by Patsy Taylor, into her pad.

CAST

Patsy Taylor
Deanna Coulter
Carol Probst
Sharon Dean
Larry Anderson
Billy Funderburk
Ann Jackson
Moquin Sims
Richard Brinkley
Larry Burrows
Bob Theriot
Bill Frankfather
Annetta Leeson
Linda Franklin

Claudia Johnson
Jill Williams
Toni Roe
Nancy Siler
Kenneth Van Deman
David Parsons
Menis Paraskevas
Verna Wren
Rick Etheredge
Ronald Dean
Phyllis Boles
Carole Nelson
Joe Compton

Senior Class Presents "All Shook Up"

The Senior Class presented the play, "All Shook Up," by David Rogers, on February 16 and 17 in the high school auditorium.

The play was a comedy about beatniks in college. It was presented in three acts and was directed by Paul Wilmoth, KHS speech director. Vicki Morris was assistant director; Lyn Franklin was propmaster, and Claudia Johnson was costumes and business manager.

The leading roles were played by Patsy Taylor, Larry Burrows, Billy Funderburk, Bob Theriot, Sharon Dean, and Carol Probst.

What's this? Are Patsy Taylor and Larry Burrows trying to imitate the painting drawn by Mr. Wilmoth for the play?