The Honor Society is an organization for students with an average of 87 on all academic subjects. They are also judged on character, leadership and service. Membership is open to Juniors and Seniors who meet the qualifications and are approved by the faculty members.

Future Business Leaders of America

The central aims of FBLA is to develop competent, aggressive business leadership, to create more understanding and interest in choosing business occupations, to strengthen the confidence of the members in themselves and their work, and to learn to depend upon their own self. The club has three levels of membership based upon achievement and service to the school or the club. The organization participates in other activities such as providing Valentine telegram service to the student who were fortunate enough to receive one.
