

Groups Prepare for Contest

Dr. Milburn E. Carey is shown directing the K Band in an all day clinic before they went to contest on April 28. The band played "Totem Pole", "Pageant", and "Overture For Winds". They received a first division rating in concert, and a second division rating in sightreading.

The Yellow Jacket Choir and Choraliers went to contest on March 31. The Yellow Jacket Choir sang, "Tene Brae", "Stars Are With The Voyager", and "Weep O Willow". The Yellow Jacket Choir and Choraliers are shown in a pre-contest concert.

Fred Maxwell taught Mr. Stumberg's 8th grade science class at Junior High School.

Lyn Franklin taught Miss Green's 5th grade class at Purple Sage Elementary School.

Students Teach

On April 18 and 19 the members of FTA did their practice teaching. The student teachers observed on Monday and taught on Tuesday. Each student had his choice of the school in which they wanted to teach. This is an event to which all FTA members look forward.
