

Julie Jordan Bigelow, played by Toni Roe, tells her husband Billy, played by Hal Upchurch, that she is going to have a baby.

“Carousel” Presented by Choir and Thespians

Jigger Craigen, played by Phil Everett, sings a solo of "Blow High, Blow Low."

Carrie Pipperidge tells the girls about her love.

Carrie Pipperidge, played by Dede Lancaster, sings to her intended, Enoch Snow, played by Jerry Upton.

"Carousel," a musical comedy by Rogers and Hammerstein, was presented in the KHS auditorium on May 11 by the choral and speech departments. The scenery was made by students in the art classes. Those playing the leading parts were Hal Upchurch, Toni Roe, Dede Lancaster, Jerry Upton, Marcia Moore, Phil Everett, and Sherrie Dunham. The one-night performance was a tremendous success.

Mrs. Mullins, played by Sherrie Dunham, tries to get Billy Bigelow to take his job back as barker of her carousel.

Nettie Fowler, played by Marcia Moore, sings "June Is Busting Out All Over," as members of the choir look on.