

Seniors anxiously await to be served.

Baptists Salute Seniors

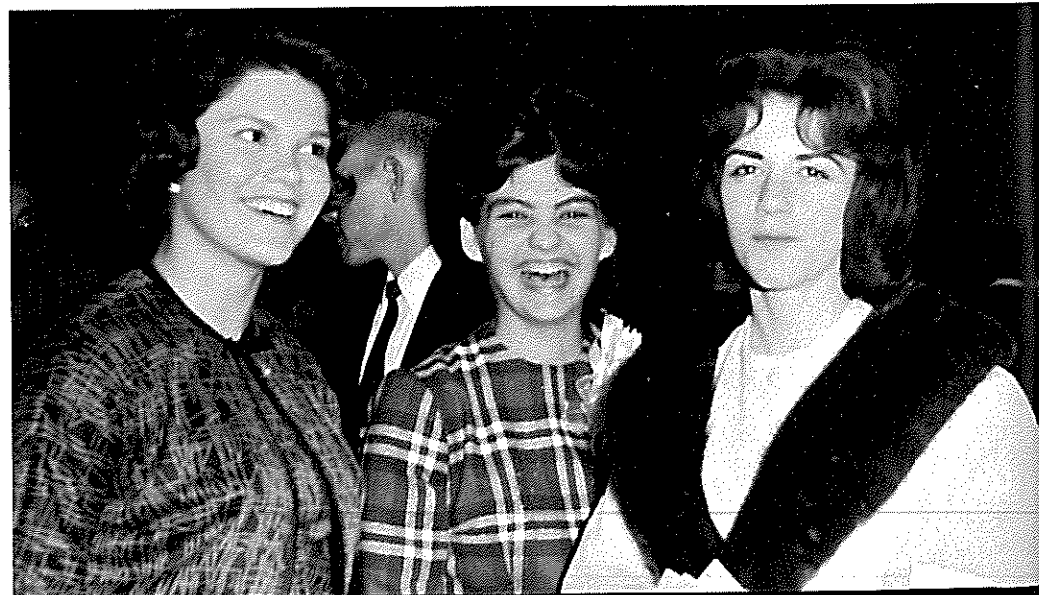

"The Magic Land of Alakazam" was the theme of the annual Baptist Banquet held January 17 at the Fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church. Entertainment was provided by Mark Garner, the man with magic up his sleeve and the "Clown Sextet" made up of Baptist women. Rev. A. B. Lightfoot was the guest speaker.

The Baptist women dressed as clowns, sing "Climb Every Mountain," which was chosen as the seniors class song.

Members of the annual staff stop to have their pictures made.

Banquet Ends '63 Season

The Football Banquet was held Saturday night, January 19, at the High School cafeteria. The cafeteria was decorated with reminders from the past football season. Following the banquet there was a dance at the Youth Center for the student body.

Roger and Kenneth were chosen by the Exes association as most valuable lineman and back.

Guest speaker was Coach David Slaughter from Sul Ross State College. He talked about Scholastic Aptitude and Athletic Ability. This year the Exes picked Roger Tannery as outstanding lineman and Kenneth Deckard as outstanding back. Mr. Julian Dawson presented Alton Cox, Roger Tannery, Kenneth Deckard and Michael Wyles with a certificate for all-district.

Roger, Michael, and Kenneth were chosen all-district. Not pictured is Alton Cox.

Everyone stops talking and smiles to have their picture made.

