

Bubba and Benjy show their talents as the Bebe Sisters.

Now we present . . . Gary Bore

The honorable jury pronounces the verdict, "guilty."

Sophomores Present Talent

February 12 was the day that the Sophomores presented their talent show for losing the March of Dimes Drive. Title of the program was "The Gary Bore Show." Sophomore students dressed and imitated famous stars. Garry Moore, played by Steve Everest; Durwood Kirby, played by Larry Taylor; The McGuire Sisters, played by Sharon Mulsow, Jenita Hemphill and Meredith Lancaster; Carol Burnett, imitated by Patricia Gilbreath.

The sponsor of the production was Dawson's Wax. That Wonderful Year was presented and the program was closed as all Sophomores on stage sang 'Do You Recall That Wonderful Year.'

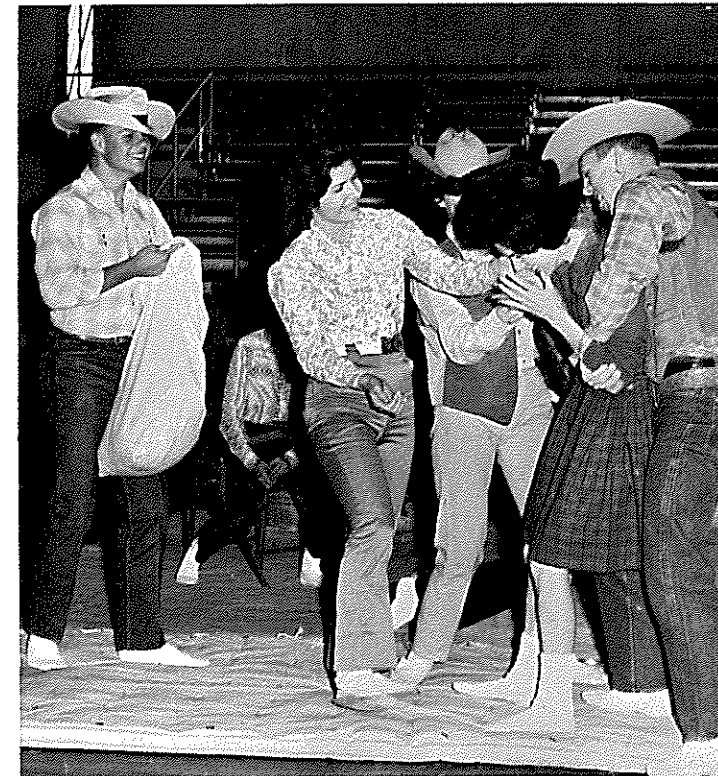

All members join in to sing the closing song of the program.

Twirps Caught

A Kangaroo Court polished off the "Twirp Week" activity with tar and feathers and a slightly bias jury.

Judge Jon Atwood was flanked by Sheriff Robert Roark in handing out punishment for failure to do almost anything. Sheriff's deputies Larry Jordan, Larence Hicks, Mike Lambert, Marty Mayer, Jo Lewis, Carol Jones, and Judy Compton read the many lists of offenders and hauled them out of the stands for justice.

The week activity was filled with girls paying for cokes and dates and a "Bush Posse" which patrolled the out lying areas.

Cheryl Mitchell learns her lesson for not buying her twirp week license.

Sheriff Robert and Judge Jon pronounce sentence.

Judge Jon gets tar and feather treatment.
