

Marie Cottrell, Sarah Medcalf, and Mike Evans tabulate election results.

Deputy Tommy Wilson arrests two criminals.

Commissioner's Court meets with students.

Seniors Take Over County Government for One Day

County Government Day was one of the year's highlights. Officials were elected to county posts and a mock trial was staged.

Don Home, county attorney; Marcia Moore, Justice of the Peace for Precinct One and Two and Sherry Abel for Precincts Three and Four. Constables elected were Craig Fisher and Joan Graves. Reggie Gilbreath served as Sheriff. Joe Rucker, Mike Flatley, James Shipman, and Jess Ferrell were county commissioners.

Ann Miracle was elected County Clerk and Carol Peden was Treasurer. Ken Deckard served as Surveyor. Jack Holt was elected Tax Assessor-Collector.

Monday, April 8, a trial was held and those convicted and receiving life sentences were Mike Evans, without parole; Martha Lawrence, without parole; Ingela Davidsson, five years and Don Williamson was acquitted.

Seniors were honored at a banquet in the High School cafeteria sponsored by the American Legion.

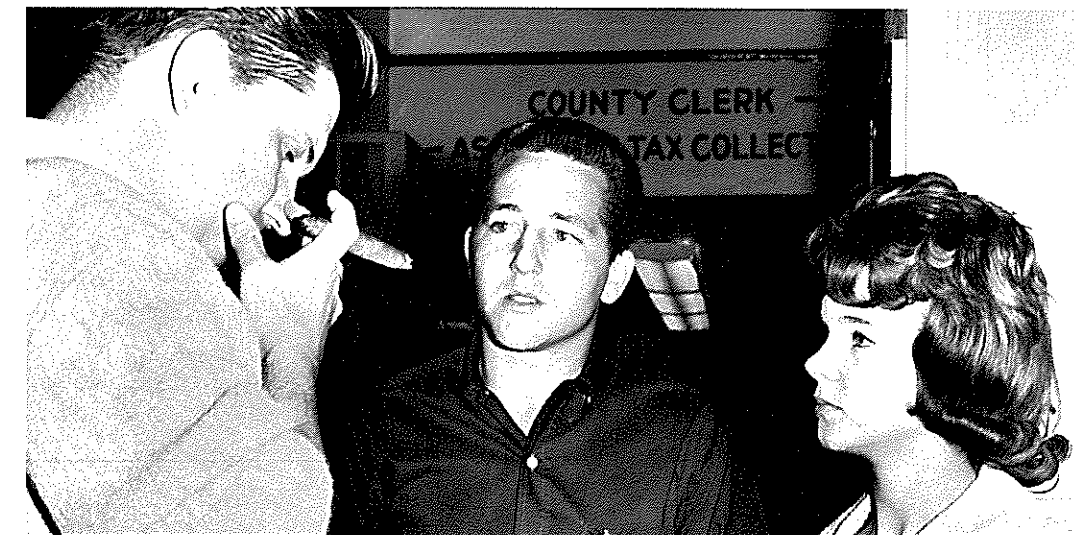

Dick Milstead, local attorney, listens with Judge Robertson.

Jack Holt sells a car license.

Justices of the Peace Marcia Moore and Sherry Abel meet with Judge Calloway.

Grover Swift talks shop with Tommy Wilson and Joan Graves.