

Jackets pose with trophies won at the Seminole Relays.

Ken Deckard was caught in the air as he finished the controversial 100-yard dash at the district meet.

Gary Hobson strains over 14 feet for 3A record.

Cindermen Winners

Jacket trucksters blazed a victorious trail through the current season.

They started the year by placing second at the Comanche Relays at Fort Stockton behind Odessa Permian.

The order for the year was a highly competitive season between the local thinclads and Fort Stockton's Panthers. The Panthers mustered the steam to win the district meet and also blasted the Jackets at the regional meet in Odessa.

Kermit held up in Austin over Stockton winning second in team competition.

Nederland sneaked in to beat both 2-3A teams with a winning mile and 440-relay team.

Ken Deckard and Pat Casey are the only Seniors on the Flying "K." Marty Mayer, Phil Everett, and Gary Hobson will be back next season to defend their state-championship crowns.

Mr. Jonathan Lancaster gives musical directions to Bill Styron and Jenita Hemphill with Harrell Floyd looking on.

The King and I

Bill Styron and Jenita Hemphill starred in the drama-music production of the "The King and I" by Rogers and Hammerstein. The one showing of the production played to a capacity crowd on May 10 in the high school auditorium.

Speaking and singing parts were played by Judy Petree, Bill Southern, Tyleen Deeds, Harrell Floyd, Tim

Jones, Robert Edwards, Ray Holcomb, Jim Walker, Ginger Schmidt, and Eddie Helms.

The massive cast was staged on a beautifully designed set. Deva Wood handled the choreography.

Mr. Jonathan Lancaster, High School Choral Director and Mr. Paul Wilmoth, Dramatics Coach, directed the production.

The wives and children of the "King" listen as the Ruler-Father gives instructions about the visiting English teacher.