CLASS HISTORY

As we turn back the pages of early school days we find one solemm faced boy who is very lonely. He seems to be the only one left in the present Senior Class that started to school here in the Primary Building. This is Harold Bounds. This lonely little boy was greeted by a fellow playmate five years later. The playmate was Robert Griggers who started here his fifth year in 1936. One year later several children came to join these two fellows. They were: Christine Alexander, Jean Leese, Evelyn Lipham, Letia McIver, Doris Pruitt, Marion Watson, Borden Clifton, Bill Collins, John Fitzpatrick, Jack Grigsby, Walter Hahn, Barney Roark, Jeep Wheatley, and J. T. Wilcoxson.

In 1939-40 Junior Carr was the only member to join the class. In 1940-41, Unita Munn, Inez Powers, Margaret Schofield, Joyce Swindle, Nig Allen, and Cecil Odem began their sophomore year with the old members of the class.

In 1942-43, the only new member to the Senior Class is Clara Mae Brewer. Throughout the twelve years of work and play, the Seniors have worked and played, taken and given, fussed and fought, prospered and progressed, learned and forgot, and realizing their achievements throughout these twelve years, they feel that their efforts have not been in vain.
