

SENIORS

W. C. STOKES

Possesses quality of thoughtfulness, is a conscientious worker and is out for everything. Has been in Navy.

JOY STOREY

Joy is a vivacious, sweet, and modest girl. Was drum major of K Band. Fun loving, mannerly, and versatile.

OGDEN STROUD

Always attends to request made of him; is the bass drummer in K Band. In junior play of '45.

JOHN TEAGUE

Jay has come back to finish school here after attending several others. On the romantic side and flashy. Cheer leader in '46-'47.

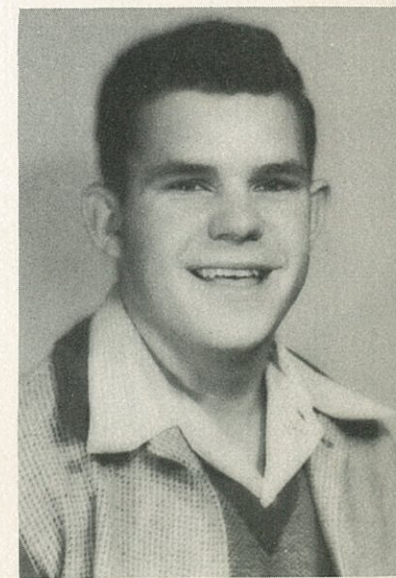

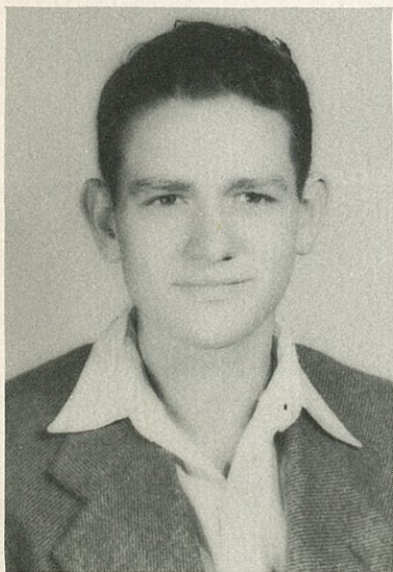

CHARLES TIERCE

Charlie can be seen on Saturday night dishing out ice cream sundaes, etc., at the L.B. He is a member of K Band.

J. B. THOMPSON

Chief of his traits is humor. Made all district in football two years. Varsity basketball team two years, senator of fresh. class and secy.-treas. of senior class.

SENIORS

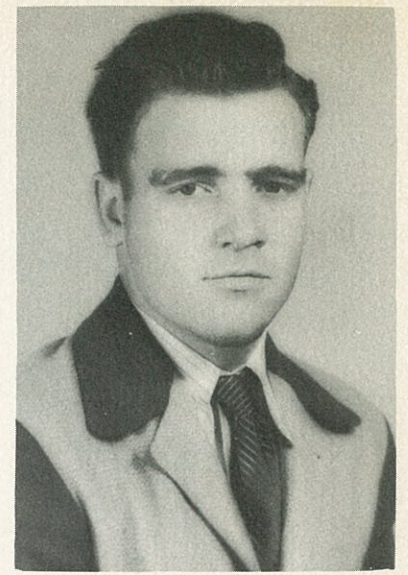

FERREL VINSON

She is always merry and loads of fun—a combination which makes her swell company. She was St. Patrick's Queen and pep squad manager.

GENE WEST

This dashing redhead is an ace athlete who lettered in basketball and football. He was co-captain of Jackets, prexy of K Club.

JO NELL WESTERMAN

This merry brownette is known as Kermit's Jo Stafford. Cute and popular, she hopes to be a beautician. Pep squad, senior reporter.

FLOYDEAN WILBURN

Always bubbling with activity, this spiffy Yellow Jacket editor has a knack for doing things. Annual staff, junior play.

BOBBY WILCOXON

Short and cute, Bobby can hold his own on the football field. Class prexy in '45-46, he was student council member.

MARY WILDER

Mary is quiet, reserved, but always noticed. She has a care-free spirit, a friendly air. Volleyball squad, K Band.

