

J. B. Thompson runs with ball, as fellow teammates block. In picture are Kennedy, 19; West, 22; Ethridge, 31; and Berry, shown at right . . .

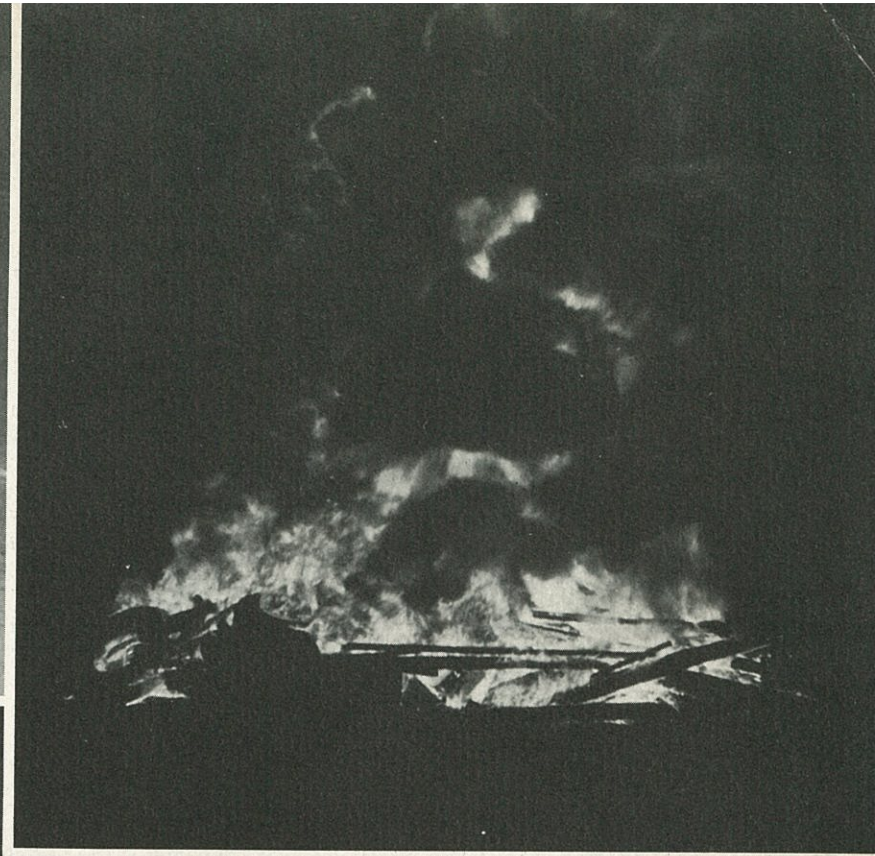

Travis Smith gets ready to tackle Seagraves ball carrier . . . Pope runs with ball, Thompson gets his block in Jal game . . .

Medinich, left, helped Pecos defeat Kermit in first conference game . .

boys watch carefully the game at Monchans . . . Coaches watch the Colorado City game . . .

Travis Smith runs for the final touchdown in the Seagraves game after receiving a pass from Milton Pope. . . . Despite burning of wood a couple of nights before the scheduled bonfire, students managed to gather enough wood for this bright blaze at the rally preceding the Wink game. . . . Students gather at bonfire after the downtown parade. . . Typical scene of a dance following the football games. . . Coach Thompson rings the victory bell at the most important of all these victory dances, the one which followed the Kermit-Wink game, proclaiming the 19 to 7 win.

