

Foreword

Here's
"The Deal", your 1949-'50
Sandstorm, published by the Annual Staff of Kermit
High School.

We have tried to mirror you and your activities this year in Kermit High in the way we thought you would like most to keep them in your memories.

We hope that you will get as much enjoyment out of this book as we did when we shuffled its pages.

The Annual Staff

Maurine Fraser, Editor
Margaret Barton, Assist. Ed.
Sylvia Holmes, Copywriter
Ruth Johnson, Assist. Copywriter
Quida Kasure, Business Manager
Harlene Dick, Assist. Business Mgr.
Jim Derry, Artist
John Garrett, Artist
Billy Joe Eaton, Typist
Wayne Bell, Typist

Dedication

The highest cards we had to choose But with this hand, how can we lose?

Dedicated to you

"G. T. Gilligan with a baton in one hand and a trombone in the other. Whether it's directing the "K" bands or entertaining the student body with your trombone solos, you're tops with us."

Outside of being band director, Gilligan is a friend to all. He's always ready to sit and chat with you and help you with your problems.

Therefore to you, G. T. Gilligan, who in the past years, have developed two great musical organizations, this yearbook, The Sandstorm, is gratefully dedicated.