

TOMMY THOMPSON
Supt. of Schools

Dear Students:

This yearbook will always be a source of pleasure for you. I congratulate you upon this fine work by your annual staff. The activities herein pictured are the record of one of the greatest all-around years in our school's history. You have excelled in many things.

We are living in an uncertain world, but if you have learned the hospitality and good sportsmanship of the old west; if you have become imbued with the good citizenship, loyalty, and patriotism of a true Yellow Jacket; if you have gained the idea that your life will be successful in proportion to the effort you are willing to put forth; if you have opportunity as your goal and not "give me" security; if these things are true, our way of life will be in good hands!

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1951

As each year ends, I evaluate the school's work by the records made by you, the members of the graduating class. This year's evaluation shows a most commendable list of accomplishments. I find a class that has more above average academic students than any class in the past. I find more members of the class active in more activities than any class in the past; and, I find a class whose members have shown a desire to improve the school and its activities and have had the originality and initiative to make these improvements.

You go from Kermit High School and as you leave, I give you this charge, "Live clean, think clean, and be true to your country and your God with the willingness to put your convictions into actions when it will better the society in which you live."

Good luck, and may your future life be one of success and happiness.
