

WAYNE CULVAHOUSE
A cheerful countenance betokens a good heart.

ZOANN GOUGH
The thing that costs the least
and does the most is just a pleasant smile.

BOYD HENDERSON
Toil is the father of fame.

RUTH JOHNSON
Confidence is the companion of success.

DELORES TIERCE
The sweetness of life increaseth learning.

PAT HAYGOOD
He introduced manner, style,
and atmosphere into his dancing.

MARY HUDDLESTON
Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace.

TINKEY LAMBERT
Yea though there be twenty damsels in the room, yet shall each be made to think in her heart, "Lo, I am it."

CHARLES DAVLIN
With news of nations in his talk, with something royal in his walk.

SARA HOLCOMB
A light heart lives long.

TOMMY HIXSON
A stout heart crushes ill luck.

JANICE LEDBETTER
Gay and gladsome as air.

BARBARA GILES
A merry heart doeth good like a medicine.

JERRY FARRINGTON
To most people, nothing is more troublesome than the effort of thinking.

HARRI JEAN JACKSON
Beauty is one of God's gifts.

RAYMON LAIRD
He was tall and straight and clear-eyed and browned.

