

Dedication

To no one more deserving could we, the Annual Staff, dedicate this 1951 SANDSTORM than the "Mother of K.H.S."

MRS. JEWELL MARTIN

M is for the many things she's taught us
O is for how often she has helped us
T is for her toil and time she's given so freely
H is for her honor we hold high
E is for her earnest, untiring efforts
R means rich with love and sympathy

O is for her opinion we value highly
F is for the faith she's had in us

K. means kindness, keenness and knowledge
H. is for her heart that holds us all
S. is for success which she'll always have

Foreword

At sunrise, the cowhands of the Golden "K" are just saddling up out at the old corral. First there is the Foreman, then the Wranglers, and now the Saddle Tramps. Just a little later, the Tenderfoot. Over in the corral, the broncos are buckin'—ready for the big day ahead. They're all a part and more of this big pictorial rodeo, so stay in that saddle and hold tight!
