

Yellow Jacket

L. II—NO. 13

KERMIT HIGH SCHOOL, KERMIT, TEXAS

Friday, April 25, 1952

DRUMS OF DEATH' TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Press Club
to Sponsor
Cinderella Dance

Plans have been completed and a new date has been set for the Cinderella Dance. The Yellow Jacket Press Club will sponsor a Cinderella dance at the High School Cafeteria Saturday night, the 3 beginning at 8 o'clock. Students serving on publication desks from district schools are being invited to attend as guests of the KHS Club. Beba Baker, member of the Press Club, will reign as queen for the night. Invitations for the dance are being mailed from Press Club or Mrs. Martin. The admission is $1 per couple. Attendance by invitation only. Funds cleared by the Press Club will be placed in a fund.

Gadberry
SH Chee

Hanna Gadberry, who is remembered as the funny name, has been elected for Midland High School. She did a well job she did this season for KHS, and that she will be as proud of her. Good luck to you Othanna, "hearing," and don't forget to always have a place for KHS.

SAY, LISTEN
YELLOW JACKETS

TOMMY THOMPSON

I understand students are pretty pretty they they

Signals Lights Are
Your Protection

Class of 1952 Gives 3-Act
Mystery-Comedy as Annual Play

Presents

Tonight at 8 o'clock in the High School Auditorium the Senior Class will present as its annual play "The Drums of Death," a three-act mystery-comedy by Howard Reed.

A group of oddly contrasted people arrive at midnight at a half-ruined mansion in the desert lagoon. They have been summoned by a telegram which they discover is false. . . . Every one comes too late to escape from the play. . . . Third forces and malice threaten their very lives. . . . A relative of most of them has disappeared. They quarrel. . . . The half-moon appears. . . . The octroon glances frighten of their wits, the Negro, and Harlow. . . . They know whether for the most of the cabinet that the hooded figure from time to time creeps from the monster that lurks—and back of it a dull, throbbing mysterious drums. . . . To break the tension, the little of laughter at the of the sheriff and the shelia, and there is the and glow of the roman develops in spite of the suerror of the place.

BETTY CLABORN
... Celeste

GENE CARNES
... Newton Cooper

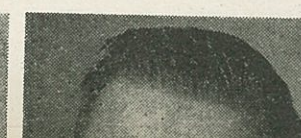

LOLISA WADDELL
... Mrs. Gillette

BILL STOREY
... Shelton Harley

FREDDIE JACKSON
... Paula Bailey

Senior Play

GILBERT PHILLIPS

P. C. SHANDS

Kermit Board of Directors

JIM WADDELL, WAYNE ADAMS, E. M. SPRUILL, STEVE NEELY, FLOYD LEDBETTER, ELMO GLASS.

MR. GERALD MCGUIRE

Director of Special Activities