

FOREWORD

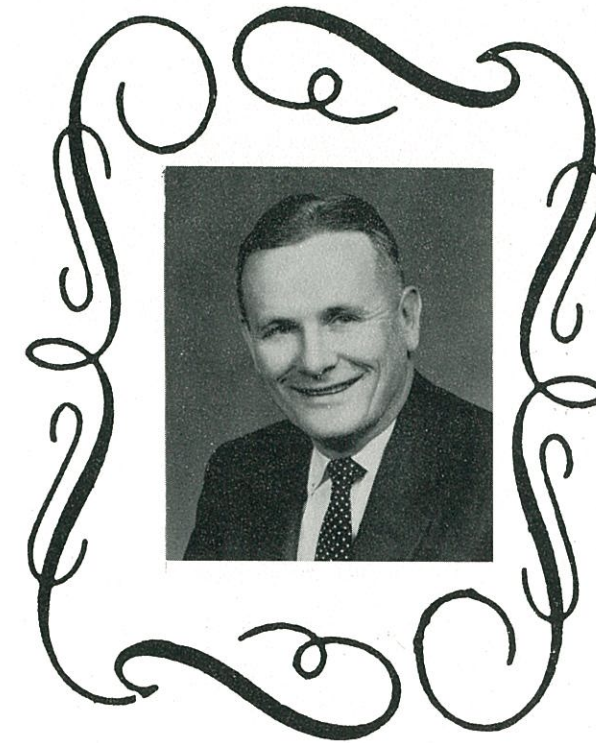

We have tried to make this volume a book of memories--a book of experiences which we have caught as they hurried across the threshold of the present.

We hope that this volume will have that value as it acquires age.

DEDICATION

G. E. THOMPSON

Because he has won our admiration by his constant striving toward the fulfillment of Kermit High School ideals of manhood and womanhood. . . .

Because it is our desire that he in some small measure realize our appreciation for what he is doing. . . and

Because of the sincere, Christian devotion in his personal life,
We, the Sandstorm Staff of 1955, do humbly dedicate this edition of the Kermit High School yearbook to G. E. (Tommy) Thompson.
