

Seniors Honor Juniors With Banquet

On April 18, 1964, the Seniors honored the Juniors with a banquet. The theme of the banquet was an Oriental setting with decorations to match. The centerpieces were small imitation Japanese 'Ming' trees. A crepe-paper dragon hung from the ceiling and fans and drawings covered the walls.

The dress for the banquet was semi-formal. There were speeches and entertainment after the dinner. The presidents of the Junior and Senior classes gave the after-dinner speeches.

Everyone enjoyed the good food. After the banquet everyone rushed home to get ready for the Prom.
