

In the morning classes Seniors are bright and attentive...

Assemblies Climax

Thursday Classes

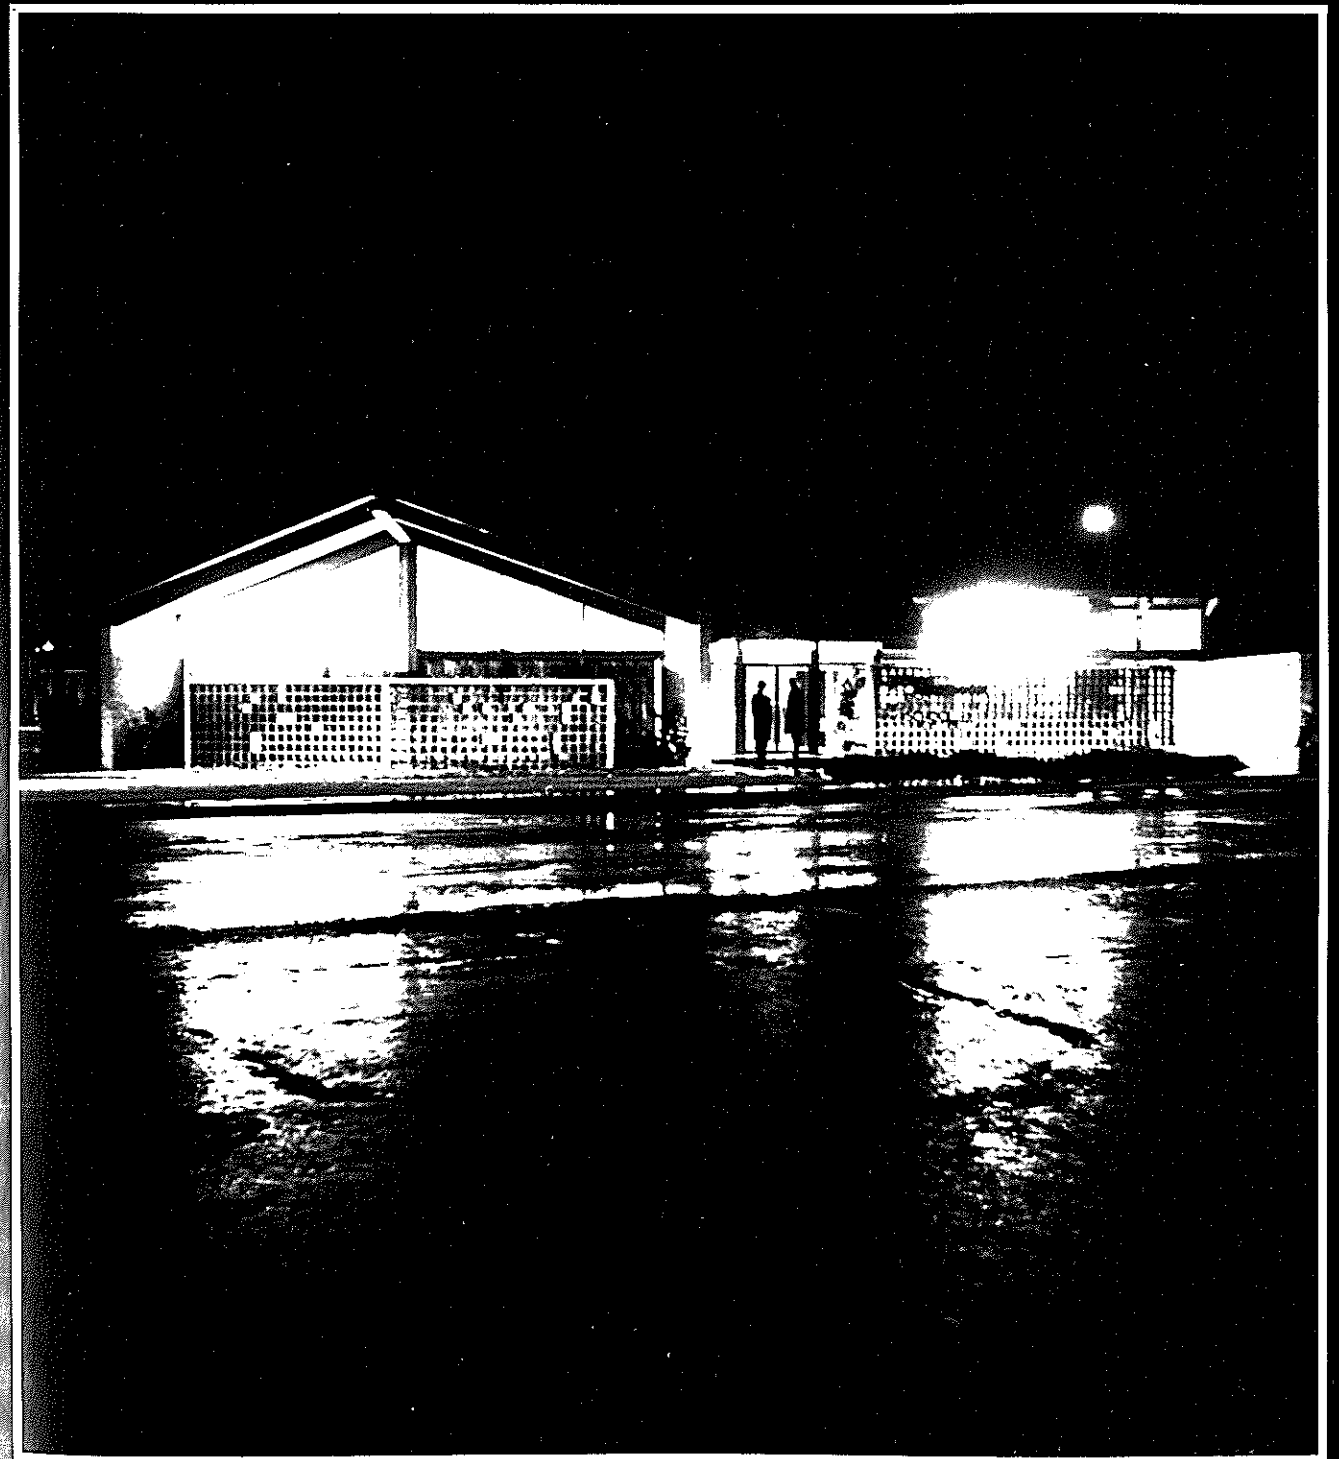

Every Thursday after sixth period, students gather in the auditorium for a student council sponsored assembly.

Susie Jackson plays the organ in an assembly while Hayter laughs and tells jokes (?).

... but they tend to become more relaxed and less attentive by the time sixth period rolls around.

The schools are the social medium by which a society keeps its memory alive, and its long-range commitments going.
