Monsters Invade Junior High

Each year a day is set aside for a dress-up activity; this year it was Monster Day. There was competition among the three classes to select the best-dressed monsters. Robert Neely and Toni Potts were named as over-all winners.

Claudia Seward and John Stockton take eighth grade win in Monster Day.

Benita Peddicord and Robert Neely are named seventh grade Monster Day winners.

Toni Potts and Jimmy Roland capture sixth grade title for best monster.
