

One Harlem Star player tries to prevent Mr. Herman Barrs, a member of the Kermit All-Star team, from making any progress.

K Club Sponsors All-Star Basketball Game

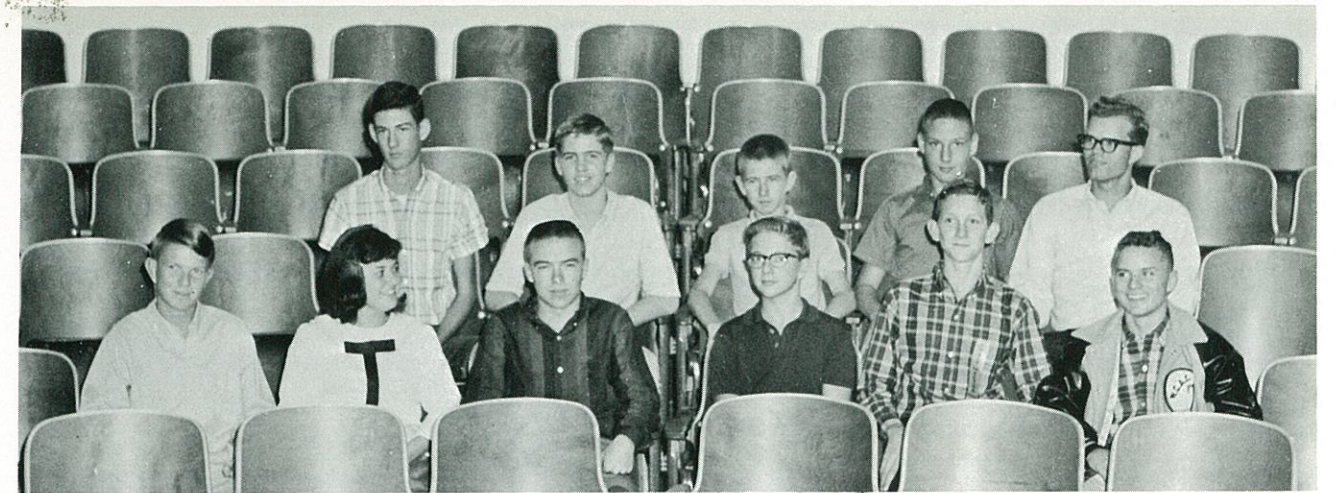

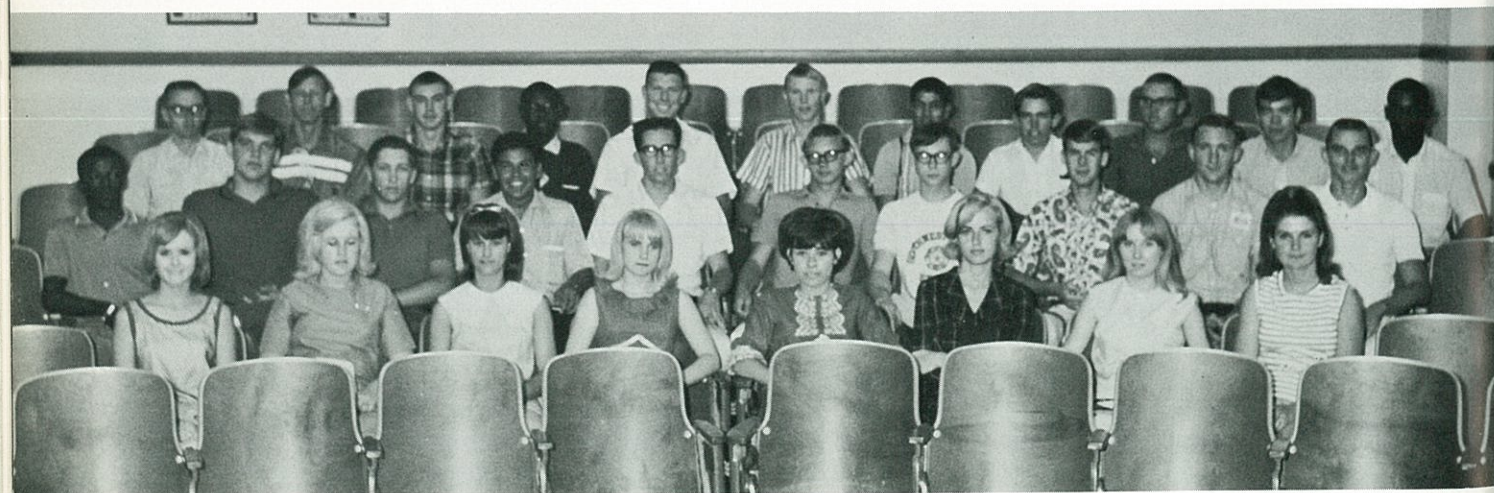

The highlight of the year for the K Club was sponsoring the Harlem Stars Basketball Game.

This was a basketball game between the Harlem Stars and the Kermit All-Stars. The Kermit All-Stars team was made up mostly of the faculty of the Kermit Schools.

First Row: Linda Rutledge, Pam Peden, Martha Bridges, Michelle Brown, Debbie DeVolin, Diane Grogan, Toni Parker, Martha Spinks. Second Row: Carroll Samuels, Mike Pulattie, Joe Scott, Alvaro Gonzales, Ronnie Walker, Mike Cloud, Ernest Tate, Burton Carley, David Fielding, Eddie Adams. Third Row: Rex Mann, Eddie Everett, Jerry Sims, Billy Ray Thompson, Leo Brooks, Lanny Baker, Luis Hernandez, Mike Giesler, Jerry Edwards, Leo Juarez, John Henry Samuels.

The annual Installation-Banquet was held May 24. Officers for the coming year were elected. New members to K Club were installed.

Officers for the year were: president, Leo Brooks; vice-president, Mike Choate; secretary, Carol White.

First Row: Gary Shultz, Linda Mulsow, Curtis Meinzer, Jonathan Reynolds, Danny Skaggs, Lynn Armstrong. Second Row: Walter Durfey, David Lancaster, Kevin Smith, Barry Tabor, Larry Reich.

Science Club Places Second in Odessa Science Fair

After winning the first division in biology at the Odessa Science Fair with a praying mantis exhibit, and placing second in the over-all fair, Larry Reich attended the International-National Science Fair in Dallas.

Gary Shultz, who also attended the annual science fair in Odessa, placed second in physics.

Lynn Armstrong brought home a second in biology from Odessa.

The Kermit Science Club won a second place trophy for total team points.

Officers for the year were: Gary Shultz, president; Lynn Armstrong, vice-president; Linda Mulsow, secretary; Larry Reigh, photographer.

The Science Club was sponsored by Mr. Bill Jolley and Mr. Sam Skipworth.

Science Club members Larry Reich, Lynn Armstrong, Gary Shultz and Mr. John Blackman, Director of the Science Fair, display the second place trophy won by Kermit at the fair.

