

Encouraging words from the sidelines play an important part in winning a game.

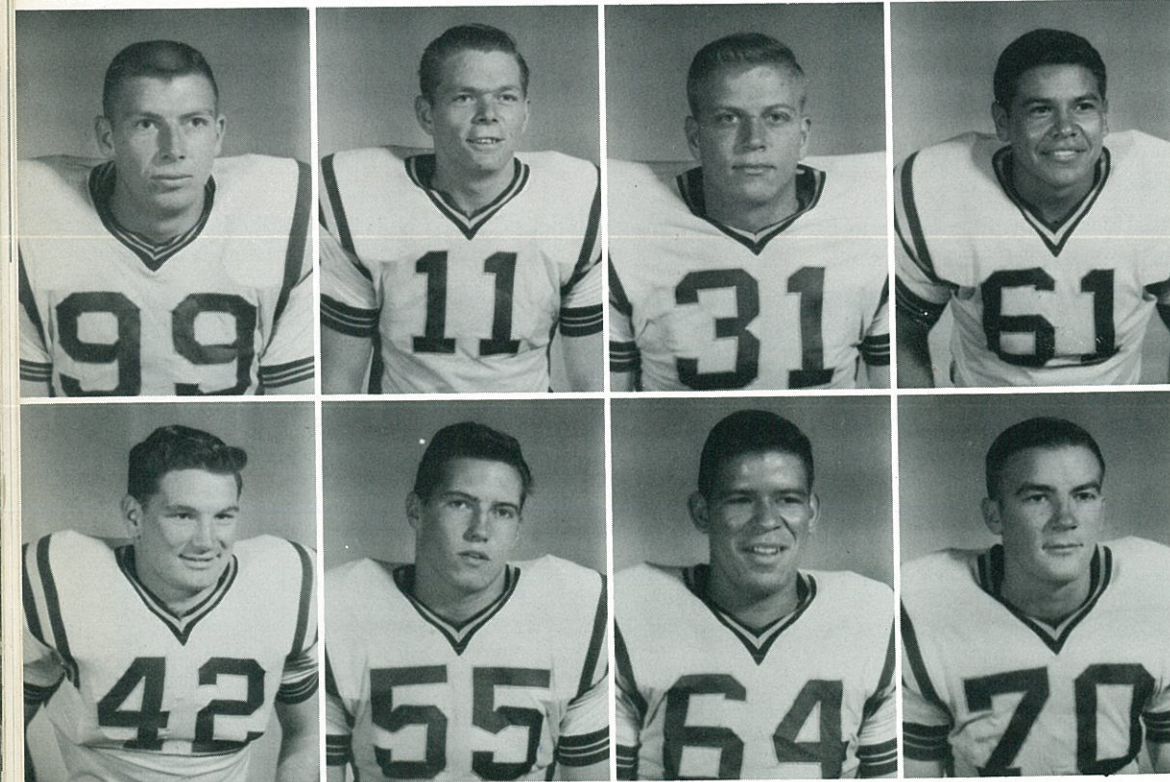

TOUCHDOWN! Andy Buffington breaks through on a quarterback sneak against the El Paso Tigers. The Jackets defeated the Tigers 19-0.

Coach Don Brown confers with Coach Dwayne Turner in the Press Box during the Ector game.

Billy Thompson, cornerback, watches the offense from the sidelines in the Jackets 28-7 loss to Monahans.

Leo Brooks 3VL
All-District
All-West-Texas
All-State
Captain

Andy Buffington 3VL
All-District
All-West-Texas
Captain

Mike Choate 3VL
All-District
Captain

Alvaro Gonzales 3VL
Captain

Pinkie Floyd 1VL

Travis Goodman 1VL

Wally Jimenez 1VL
All-District

Andy Mullen 1VL

Jackets Win Homecoming Tilt 19-0, Blank Snyder 14-0

KERMIT 19-EL PASO HIGH 0

Kermit Yellow Jackets thrilled its homecoming fans by trouncing the El Paso Tigers 19-0.

Jerry Sims picked off a Bear pass and scored from 25 yards out to give Kermit its initial score.

Tallies were added in the third and fourth quarters by Billy Thompson and Andy Buffington to insure a victory.

KERMIT 14-SNYDER 0

The Yellow Jackets captured their third pre-district win by whipping Snyder's Tigers 14-0 on the Tiger home gridiron.

Blocking beautifully on a well executed play, the Jackets hit pay-dirt on a Buffington 47-yard scoring jaunt.

Defensively the Jackets displayed their usual fine performance with Lanny Baker intercepting a pass and Jerry Jones making key tackles.

The Jackets added a tally in the last quarter on a 10-yard tackle eligible pass play from Buffington to Leo Brooks.

Having finished an impressive pre-district schedule the gridders were eager for their first taste of district battle at Pecos.

