

Marc King tramples his hat as Randy Whorton tries to explain the situation at hand.

M'Liss (Glenda Crawford) jumps at John Gray (Randy Whorton) while Clytie Moffitts (Vicki Ray) watches.

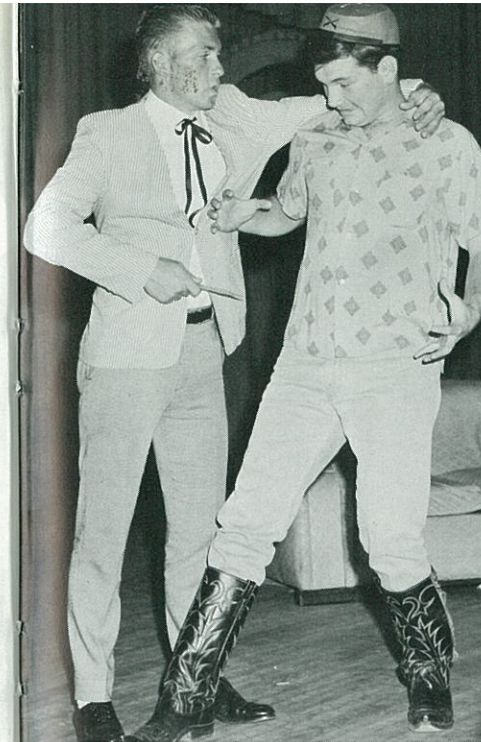

Thespians Present "M'Liss"

"M'Liss" staged by the National Thespian Society was presented Oct. 22, 1965 in the Kermit High School Auditorium.

Mr. Paul Wilmoth directed this play to a success and was assisted by Jimmy Seward, student director.

The play was concerned with the fortune and mysterious death of Bummer Smith.

Judge McSnaggle (Marc King) swears in Yuba Brown (Randy Bryan).

Mr. Carter (Keith Anderson) gives final warning to Bummer Smith (Pinkie Floyd).

Glenda Crawford applies make-up to Sonny Wilson.

Marc King and Keith Anderson carry on a heated conversation as Randy Bryan and others watch with curiosity and dismay.

