

The man who's always behind the Jackets, Coach Charles Jetton, shouts instruction from the sidelines.

Jackets Exemplify Spirit

Behind any winning organization, athletic or otherwise there must be a desire to win that is sparked by pride and spirit.

The students, faculty and fans of KHS exemplified that type of spirit in 1966, at games, pep rallies and individual events.

Janis Coulter, Debbie DeVolin, Michelle Brown, Karen VanDeman, Toni Parker and Glenda Crawford abandon their batons and pom poms to boost the gridders in the 19-0 Homecoming victory over El Paso High.

Even rain doesn't dampen the Yellow Jacket spirit, as Mary Graham, Lana Koon and Peggy White yell at the Andrews game under the protection of an umbrella.

A late rally by the Jacket cagers brings the crowd to their feet in the 64-62 loss to Andrews.

Jeannette Russell and Hilda Juarez give plenty of vocal support to the basketball team.

Senior cheerleader, Vicki Ray sheds a tear after her last pep rally.

