

Juniors Stage Play

"Look Who's Laughing" was presented by the junior class and staged Dec. 4, 1966. Randy Whorton was student director.

Ricky Ray was challenged by his long-time friend to hold his temper. During the allotted time, enough mishaps occurred to cause an even-tempered man to become angry.

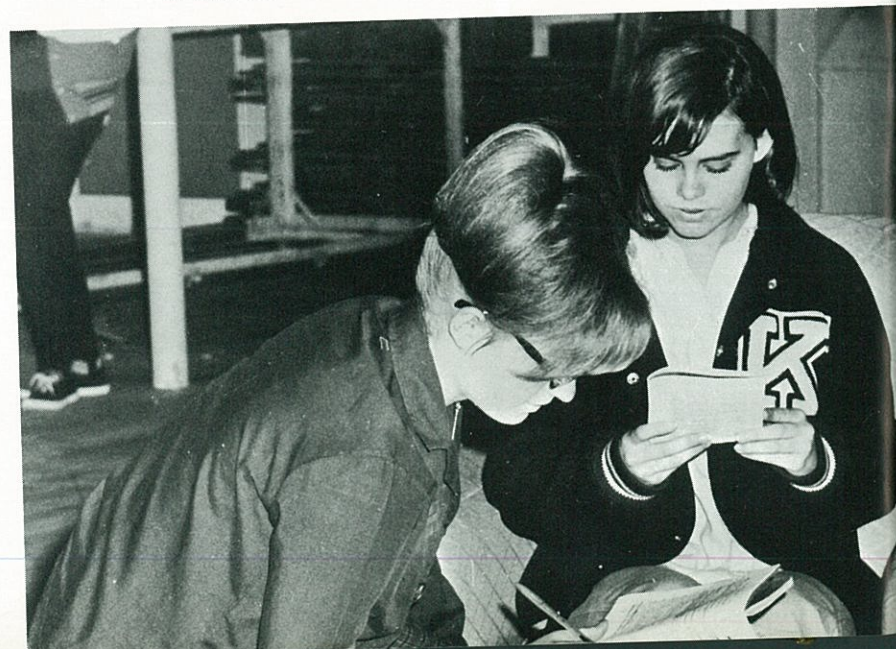

Camille Lennon dusts the couch.

Grandma Milligan (Evelyn Stevenson) sits in Artie Mann's (David Lancaster) lap.

Ricky Ray tries to control his temper when his wife Mame (Camille Lennon) drops his clock. Jed Tracy (Jerry Edwards) watches.

Evelyn Stevenson and Karen Lee rehearse a scene.

Henry Drummond (Marc King) expresses deep concern as he presents his case before the court as Mathew Harrison Brady (Pinkie Floyd) watches.

Mrs. Brady (Betsy Burnett) consoles Pinkie Floyd after he leaves the stand.

Marc King questions Howard (Sterling True).

Contest Play Places Third

"Inherit the Wind," placed third in District UIL competition on March 31, 1966.

Marc King was placed on the all-star cast and Pinkie Floyd was given honorable mention for the all-star cast.

Marc King makes a precise point about evolution during the trial.
