

Baptist Banquet Honors Seniors

Kermit seniors were honored with a banquet provided by the Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church on Jan. 27, 1966.

Entertainment was provided by a singing group from Eastern New Mexico University. Guest speaker, Mr. Jerry Cain, was presented by Hal Upchurch, master of ceremonies. The theme for the banquet was "Camelot." Decorations consisted of tin shields, swords, and helmets.

Sue Ann Moore signs the register before entering the dining room while Joyce Worley, Ruth Wilson, Patty Robinett and Dewayne Lamb stand in line.

Seniors Sallie Bartlett, Connie McDonald, Betsy Burnett and Sherry Frankfather enjoy the food served at the banquet.

Entertainment was provided by The Ministrels, a group from Eastern New Mexico University.

Buffington and Brooks Named Outstanding Players at Football Banquet

Leo Brooks and Andy Buffington were named outstanding players of the year at the annual Football Banquet held Feb. 26, 1966.

Brooks was named outstanding lineman and Buffington was honored as outstanding back of the year.

Special guest speaker for the banquet was Coach Gene Mayfield from Permian High School.

Coach Mayfield was awarded the title "Coach of the Year" after his Permian Panthers captured the 1965 AAAA state championship. Mayfield stressed the fact that athletes should apply themselves academically as well as athletically.

Coaches, administrators and their wives applaud speaker Gene Mayfield.

Lanny Baker and Ricky Ray lose no time talking.

Judy Flattley beams with pride as Jerry Sims stands for recognition.
