

Larry Dingler decorates for the ball.

Vicki Ray and Andy Buffington appear starry-eyed as they sit through a dance.

Alton Jackson and Mickie Horn dance to the music of the "Sensations."

Judd Graves and Linda Sparks discuss the events of the evening.

Press Club Ball Portrays Old South

"Old South" was the theme of the annual Press Club Ball held Feb. 12, 1966 at the WCYC.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the King, Queen and royal court of KHS. Students receiving these honors were elected by popular vote.

Marc King was crowned King by Principal Julian Dawson. Vicki Ray reigned as Queen and was presented with a bouquet of red roses.

In the courtyard of a southern mansion, bells and beaus danced under the stars to the music of the "Sensations" from Lubbock.

John Henry Samuels 'cuts loose' with the latest dance craze.

Couples dance in the atmosphere of an old southern plantation during the annual event.