

Speech Director, Paul Wilmoth discusses topics with District UIL winners Sharyn Moore and Betsy Burnett.

Kermit Places Second in District UIL Meet

Kermit finished second in the UIL Literary Contest. Prose reader Sharyn Mocre and persuasive speaker Betsy Burnett captured first places in their events, which qualified them for the Regional meet, along with Patsy Rhodes who placed second in science and Linda Stoudemire who took second in shorthand.

Martha Spinks and Janis Coulter, debaters, along with persuasive speaker David Fielding, and extemporaneous speaker Pam Peden brought home second place medals.

Mark Sims captured the third prize in extemporaneous speaking.

Linda Stoudemire won the Regional shorthand contest and represented Kermit in the state meet.

Linda Stoudemire, who won first in regional, practices for the state meet.

Martha Spinks
Debate

Janis Coulter
Debate

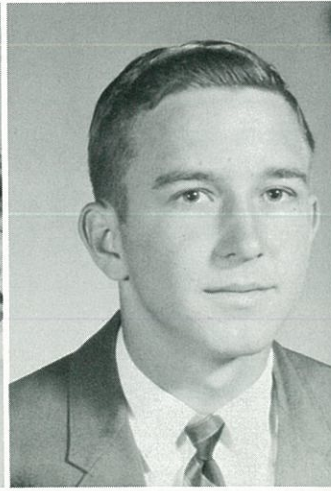

David Fielding
Persuasive

Pam Peden
Extemporaneous

Patsy Rhodes
Science

Mark Sims
Extemporaneous

County Government Day Big Event for Seniors

County Government Day was held on March 28, 1966. Barby Bewley and Judd Graves were found guilty for armed robbery and sentenced to thirteen years in the penitentiary. Mr. Grover Swift, Janis Coulter and Toni Parker provided defense for the criminals and Don Nugent, Marc King, and Betsy Burnett acted as district attorneys.

A banquet followed the trial and Marc King made a speech on government.

Barby Bewley and Judd Graves ponder the decision of the jury.

Marc King cross-examines the witness.

Georgia Potter, Sherry Frankfather and Trisha Russell enjoy the entertainment during the County Government Day Banquet.

