

Betsy Burnett receives her diploma from Mr. D. R. Melton, president of the school board.

Mr. Tommy Thompson, superintendent, turns the tassel of Zenaida Caceres.

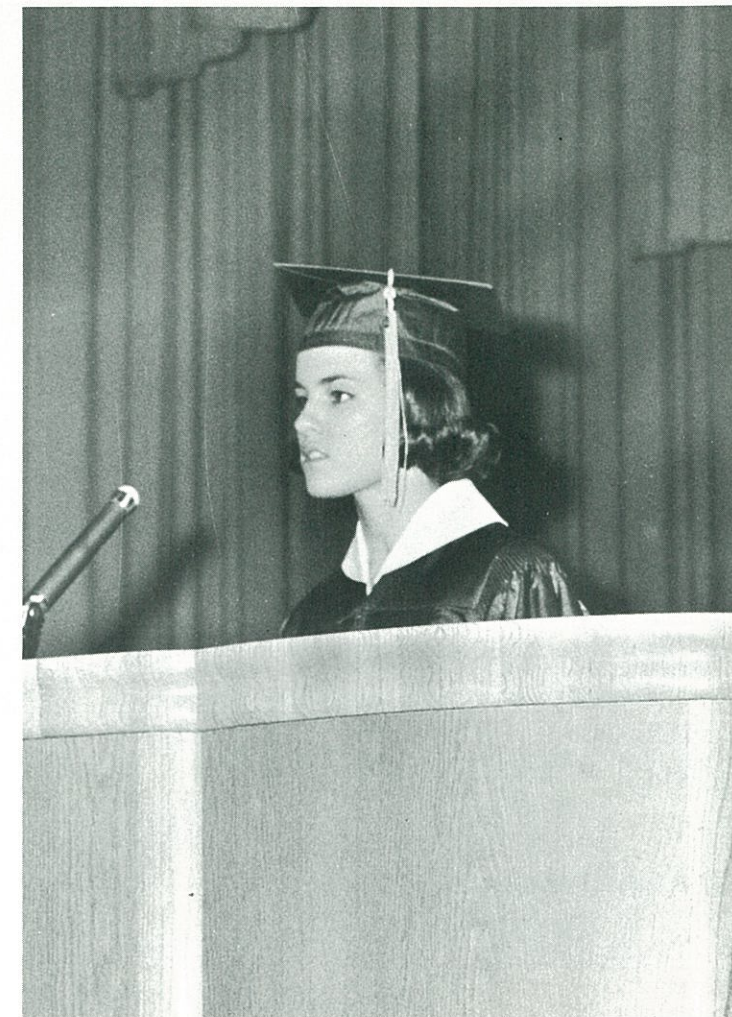

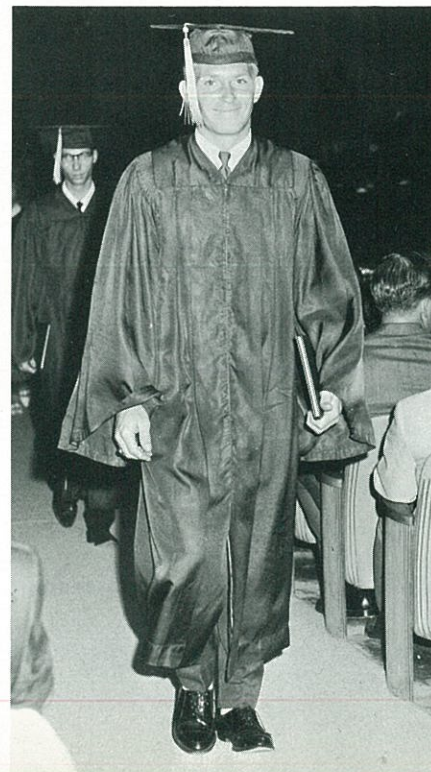

Patty Robinett and Vicki Ray have mixed emotions about graduation.

The Senior Class applauds the speech of Janis Coulter.

Keith Anderson smiles happily as he makes his final exit down the graduation isle.

Janis Coulter, valedictorian, makes her commencement speech.

Zenaida Caceres Addresses Graduating Class of 1966

The seniors of 1966 made their final walk through the halls of Kermit High School on May 27, 1966.

The commencement exercise took place in the Kermit High School Auditorium. Miss Janis Coulter, class valedictorian and Betsy Burnett, salutatorian, gave commencement speeches during the ceremony.

Zenaida Caceres, foreign exchange student from the Phillipine Islands, was main speaker for the graduation ceremony. She told her classmates and the audience about the many different things she enjoyed during her stay in Kermit.