Public Speaking Members Hold Eating Contest

Lynn Armstrong, president, led the Public Speaking members through many enlightening programs.

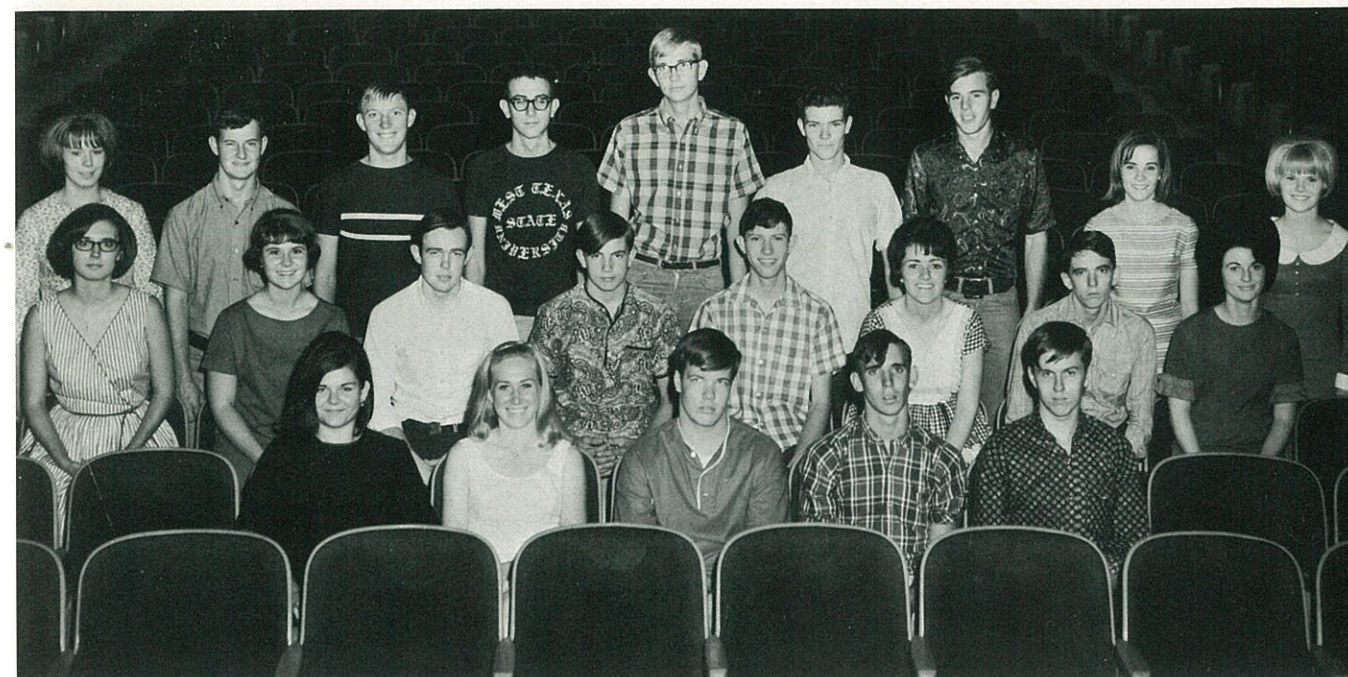

The members gained such information as how to tell jokes, how to speak correctly, how to give entertaining programs, and how to present speeches.

This year's officers were Lynn, president; David Cowling, first vice-president; Rob Varley, second vice-president; David Lancaster, third vice-president; and Micki McMillan, secretary.

The main event of the club was the assembly program which they presented concerning the different types of public speaking.

Mr. Paul Wilmoth was the club's sponsor.
