

Kenny Jones presents his prose interpretation in the Kermit Speech Tournament.

Mark Sims, informative speaker, and Susan Sidwell, poetry, prepare material for a tournament.

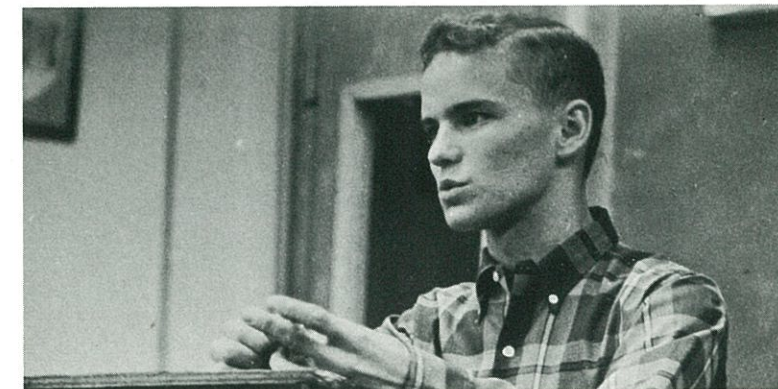

Debaters Rob Varley and Bill Tracy listen to the argument given by their opponents at the Kermit Speech Tournament.

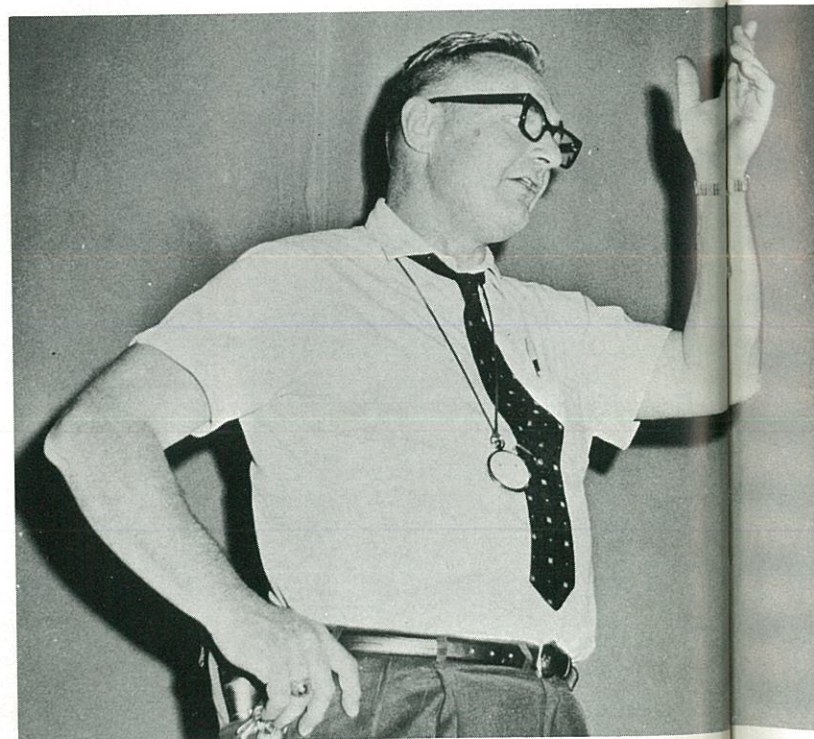

Debate, Speech Improve Speaking and Reasoning

Speech is a study of the voice, correct speaking principles, and applications of those principles through experience in speaking. It also includes oral interpretation of prose, poetry, and drama.

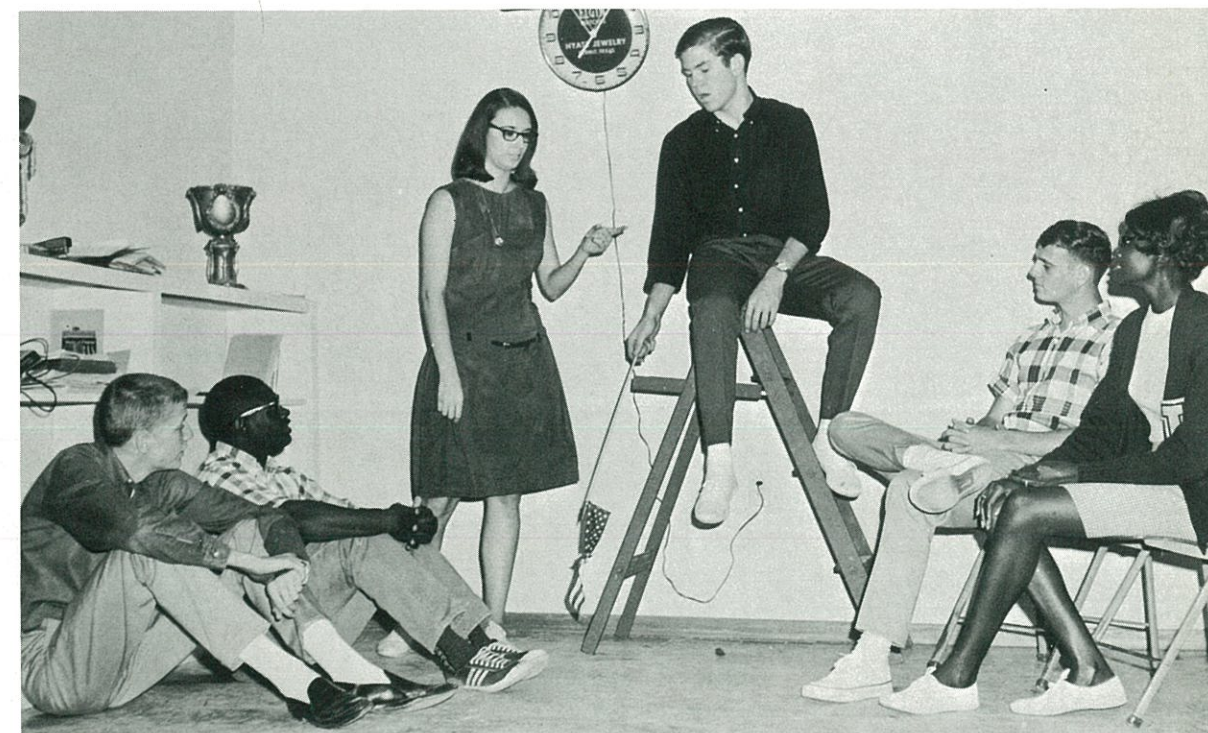

Debate includes all the principles taught in Speech plus teaching the student to listen, reason, and evaluate the arguments of others.

Lynn Armstrong practices extemporaneous speaking during Speech class.

Mr. Paul Wilmoth, speech director, lectures to the play cast during play rehearsal.

Mide Schmidt, Billy Thompson, Anita Friday, Billy Heath, Ronnie Burrows, and Norma Abron present a skit which they wrote during Speech class.