

Judy Satterfield unloads wood to help build the bonfire. Students of all classes work to complete the bonfire by Friday night.

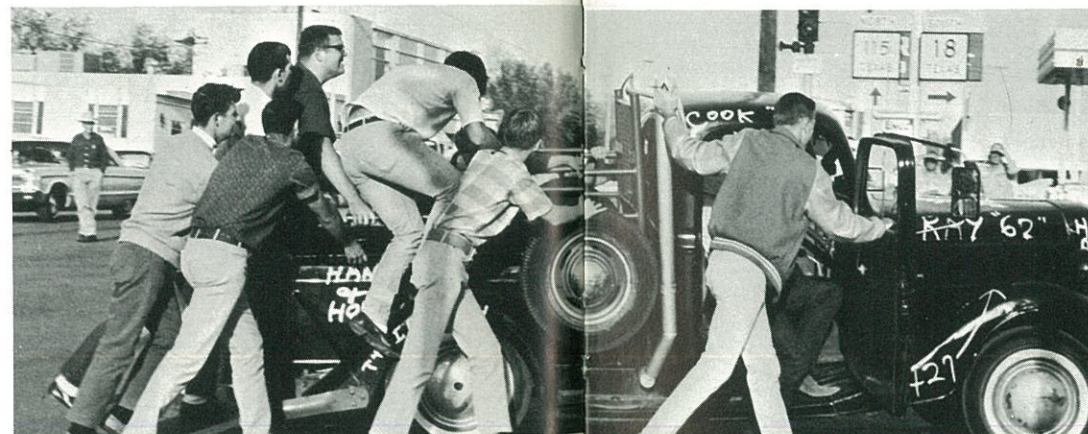

The traditional pinning of the colors was held at the Homecoming pep rally.

Senior boys help push Lynn Armstrong's truck after it ran out of gas in the Homecoming Parade.

Students pile in to go get another load of wood. As blaze increases, students back away from bonfire.

Bonfire, Parade, Pep

The Kermit Yellow Jackets displayed great spirit during homecoming activities this year. The bonfire, built in only a few short hours, was ignited by the captains of the football team.

The pep rally and color pinning ceremonies were very successful and every person showed his great determination for another victory.

Rally Accent HC

The girls nominated for Homecoming Queen were honored the day of the game with a parade through Kermit. After a victorious game over Dallas Lynch, a dance was held at the Youth Center.

