

Ginger puts water to her lips taking her first step toward learning.
Randy Whorton puts make-up on Rob Varley.

Thespians Stage 'Miracle Worker'

The Miracle Worker was presented on Oct. 22 and 23, 1966 in the Kermit High School Auditorium.

Randy Whorton, Senior, directed the play.

The play was concerned with the life of Helen Keller, a girl born blind, deaf and dumb.

Cast included Ginger Schmidt, Helen Keller; Susan Sidwell, Anne Sullivan; Gary Dailey, Capt. Keller; Linda Sparks, Kate Keller and David Lancaster, James Keller.

Other members of the cast were; Georgia Scheible, Carol Ann Davis, James Cleveland, Sterling True, Linda Whitehead, Evelyn Stevenson, Janice Brown, Mike Fannon, John Henry Samuals, Billy Ray Thompson, and Norma Abron.

Ginger Schmidt (Helen Keller) tries to read the lips of her Mother, Linda Sparks (Kate Keller).

Ginger attempts to stab Martha, (Carol Ann Davis) in a fit of rage.

David Lancaster (James Keller) gives Helen a bit of food in order to calm her down while the family watches.

