

Cindy Faircloth and Linda Montgomery work on decorations for the Ball.

Marineland Is Theme for Pres Club Ball

'Marineland' was the theme of the annual Press Club Ball held February 4, 1967 at the Youth Center. Music was furnished by the 'Sensations' from Lubbock.

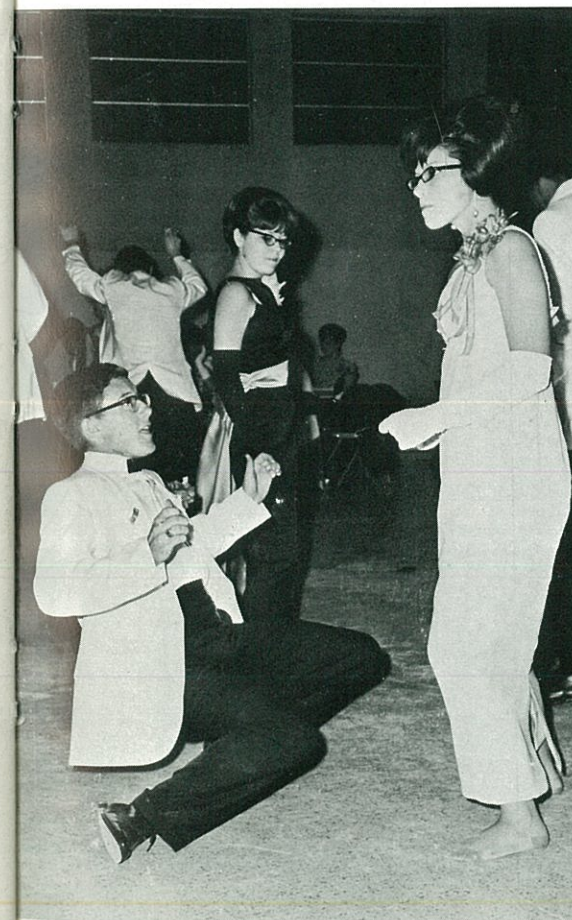

David Fielding was crowned King by Principal Julian Dawson. David then crowned Linda Sparks Queen.

The presentation of the Royal Court and the coronation of the King and Queen preceeded the dance.

Marilyn Maples, Dana Kirk and Curtis Meinzer sit out a dance at the Press Club Ball.

Susie Jackson talks to Press Club sponsor, Mr. Jerry Kight.

Joan Miller and Donnie Johnson dance to the music of the 'Sensations'.

Mrs. Donna Stanley pins on Ronda Horton's corsage before procession of the Royal Court begins.

Lelia Baird and Eddie Adams dance the latest dance craze.

