

Press Club

First Row: Gloria Barron, Cheryl Akin, Peggy Berry, Karen Green, Linda Unger, Jan Patton, Mike Reynolds, Donnie Johnson, Second Row: David Slaughter, Gordon Oglesby, Don Justice, Don McGill, Darwin Nunley, Bob Miracle, Larry Spires.

Press Club Presents Annual Press Club Ball

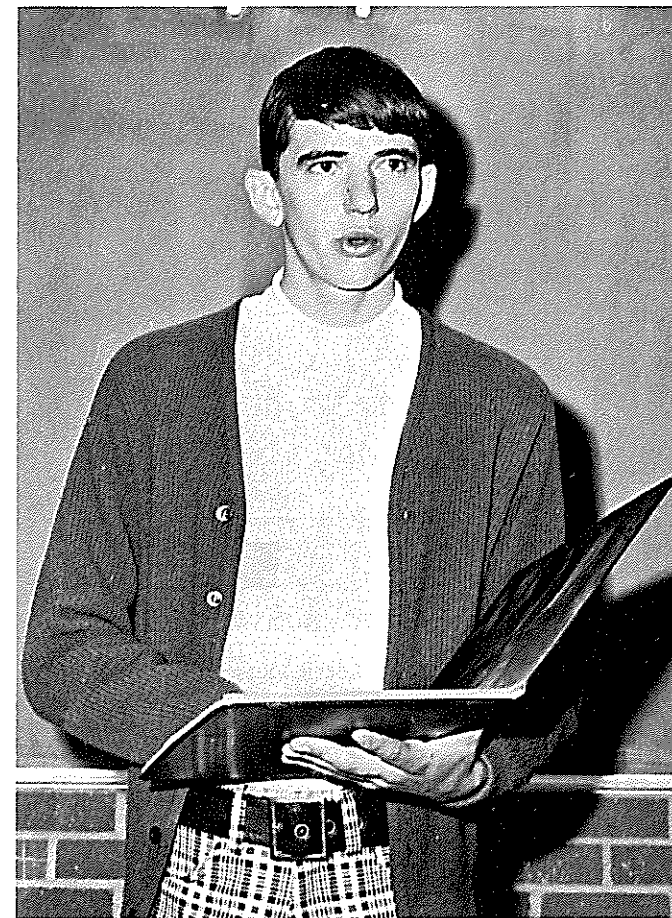

The Press Club sponsored the Press Club Ball February 24 at the Youth Center. The theme for the evening was Polynesian Nights.

Members of the Press Club sold programs at the football games to finance the decorations and entertainment. The "Decembers Children" provided the entertainment.

To be a member of Press Club a student must be in journalism, the annual staff, or the Yellow Jacket Staff. The officers for this year are Donnie Johnson-President, Loretto Germuiller-Secretary, Gloria Barron-Vice-President, and Cheryl Akin-Treasurer.

Gloria Barron and Bob Miracle decorate for Press Club Ball.

Jones Wins

Kenny Jones won first place in Boy's Poetry at the state University Interscholastic League literary contest after winning district and regional. His selection was "Thanatopsis" by William Cullen Bryant.

Jones-Cowling go to State Meet at Austin

David Cowling went to state in Boy's Persuasive Speaking after he placed in previous tournaments. David placed first in the Seminole tournament, he was in the semi-finals at Midland, finals at Hardin-Simmons, won first in district and regional, and came in second at the state tournament in Austin. His selection at the state competition was "Should President Johnson have withdrawn from the '68" Presidential Campaign."

Cowling Second