

Business and DE Prepare Students for Future

The various business courses offered at KHS, prepare students for their future as consumers of business goods and services. The courses offered are General Business, Typing I, Typing II and Office Practice, Shorthand, Notehand, and Bookkeeping.

Distributive Education prepares students for careers and occupations in retailing, wholesaling, and service. This training consists of supervised work in approved business establishments in our community and classroom instruction, combined of group discussions and individualized study.

Kay Logan and Randy Adams prepare their bookkeeping assignment together.

Miss Hampton helps Sue Thigpin and Cheryl Hager in bookkeeping class.

Mr. George Reich shows some of this seasons styles to D.E. members. From left to right are Pam Gentry, Jimmy Rhymes, Jim McKay, Mr. Reich, Donna Mathis, and Mr. Donald Paris, D.E. Instructor.

Tina learns to use telephone.

Mrs. Wilmoth instructs Gloria Barron on the dictaphone in typing class.

