

Could this be the king of the bonfire we see on top Homecoming Queen, Pam Gibson, bestows the traditional kiss upon the football during homecoming activities. Her escort was Mac Dampeer What is the world coming to with all these new gizmos Seniors vote during class meeting Mr. Wilmoth applies make-up to Marsha Denny before her performance in the play OKLAHOMA Mr. Dawson presents Dennis Skaggs with an award for his fine photography K.H.S. in the snow days Mr. Richardson demonstrates the over head project to his English class Now, what do you see here; Betty Ruth Jackson's car won the car contest held during Homecoming Dan Dampeer was among the many freshman who helped show spirit during the pep rallies by carrying signs Juniors finally get to order their rings.

K-Band promotes spirit during football games Joanna, Peggy, Emily, & Rose huddle to keep warm at the Hereford football game Donnie decorates at the Coronation Ball Cathy Whisenant & Lynn Lovelace work the adding machines in book-keeping Vicki Steward & Melinda Milstead wait to tryout for cheerleader Jeanie gives Ladd that certain smile "Poor Judd is dead, Poor Judd is dead" Pam sheds a happy tear Jeanie reads for a part in the Junior play Jan Hayter cringes as she gets her finger pricked.