

Administrative Personnel

Mr. D.M. Mayer—Director of Instructional Service

The office of Instructional Services is under the hand of Mr. Mayer. He is ever busy planning and taking care of the needs of the Kermit faculty by offering inservice training programs; helping to improve the curriculum. He handles the audio-visual program for the entire school. The respect the Kermit schools holds among other schools is due a great deal to the efficiency in which Mr. Mayer does his job.

Mr. Austin Roberts—Director of Business Services

One of the things that makes the Kermit school run with great efficiency is the way Mr. Roberts takes care of the business affairs of the school. Mr. Roberts has a job that is never finished. All buying, paying of bills, handling of requests for maintaining the up-keep of the entire Kermit school system must be handled through this office. No better man can be found for the job than Mr. Roberts.
