Junior Varsity Have 16-2 Season

The 1973-74 Jr. Varsity Volleyball season was a big success with an accomplishment of an undefeated district season.

The season began with the annual Queen Bee tournament where the girls brought back the Consolation trophy. Daina Healy and Lynn Samford were named to the All-Tourney team.

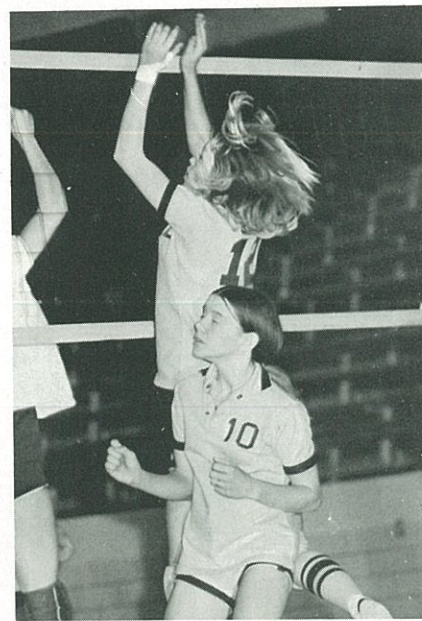

Miss Hill stated, "As the district faced us, we took each game one at a time, winning both halves of district with no losses. I feel like the girls produced their own winning season by having the desire to win. It was a pleasure to be associated with such players with outstanding volleyball ability."

The season ended with J.V.'s traveling to Plains and returning with a second place trophy. On the All-Tournament team were Daina Healy and Terry Stidham.
