JUNIORS JUNIORS JUNIORS JUNIORS

The Juniors of '75 are on their way to Seniority next year. It is always tough being an under-classman . . . bowing down to Seniors, putting up with childish antics of Sophs and Fish, analyzing novels and getting bit with dozens of scholastic tests. Many juniors burned the midnight oil trying to meet the deadline on their first research paper.

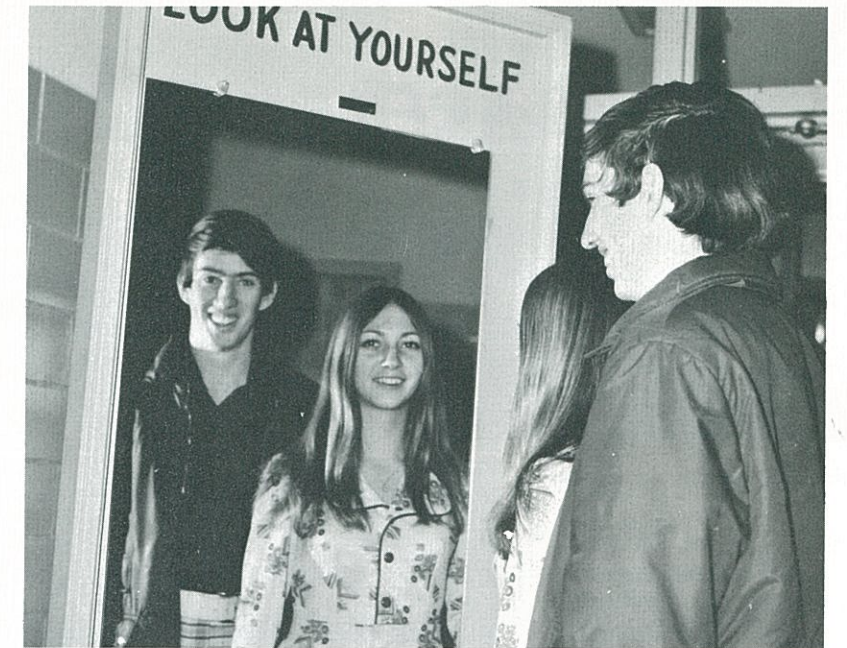

The Juniors have worked hard on their accomplishments however big or insignificant they were.

You really knew that your years were coming to a close as you received your Senior rings. You think, "If I can just make it one more year."

It wasn't all studies though, they also strived to put on an "outstanding performance" of the "Odd Couple." Next, the Juniors took on the task of sponsoring and decorating for the Junior & Senior Class Prom. The Juniors used as their theme "Another Park, Another Sunday."
