

Banquet Honors Fall Sports

The Fighting Heart Award for 1976 was awarded to Danny Haygood (SECOND FROM LEFT) as well as the outstanding back award. Travis Watson (SECOND FROM RIGHT) received the Most Valuable Player Award and outstanding lineman award. Shown with the two athletes are (LEFT) booster club representative Calvin Workmon and (RIGHT) KHS Athletic Director Charles Topinka.

Receiving the Most Valuable Player awards for volleyball were (LEFT) Daina Healy and (RIGHT) Foydell Nutt. Shown with the girls is Volleyball Coach Lois Dixon.

Joel Carrasco (SECOND FROM LEFT) received the Most Improved Player Award and Travis Watson received the Most Valuable Player Award. AT LEFT is Coach Larry Allison and AT RIGHT is Coach Mike Patterson

Guest speaker at the banquet was Angelo State University Head Coach Jim Hess.

KHS Coach Mike Patterson presents the Most Valuable Player Award to senior lineman Travis Watson.

The highly coveted Fighting Heart Award is presented to senior back Danny Haygood by KHS Head Coach Charles Topinka.

Varsity cheerleaders lead the group in singing the school song to close the banquet.