

The 1976 Kermit Yellow Jackets opened their football season against the Alpine Bucks and after falling behind in the first period, battled back and won the season opener 27-7.

In the opening quarter it looked as though the Jackets might be the underdogs as the Bucks blocked a punt and then raced 30 yards for a TD. The PAT was good and the Alpine squad was ahead 7-0.

Kermit came back in the second quarter when Dymke crossed the goal from the one-yard line. The PAT by King was good.

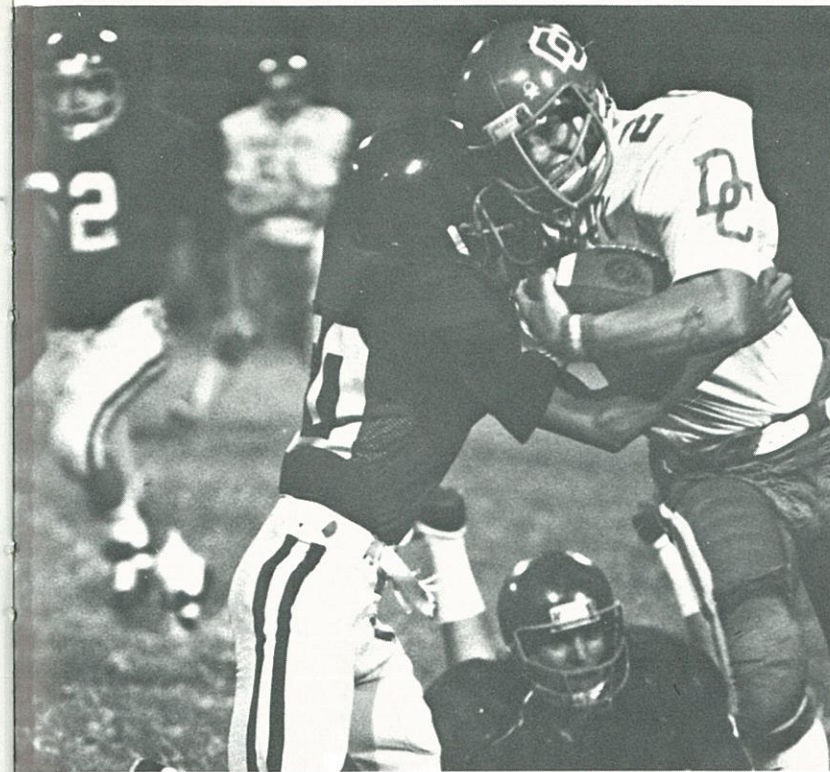

Upon returning after the half, Holt raced 83 yards for the second Jacket tally of the game. Haygood snagged a Davis pass for two extra points.

In the fourth quarter Davis completed a pass to Haygood for a 64-yard TD. The PAT failed. Later, the Davis to Haygood pass worked again for a 34-yard TD. Again the PAT failed. Final score: Kermit 27 -- Alpine 7.

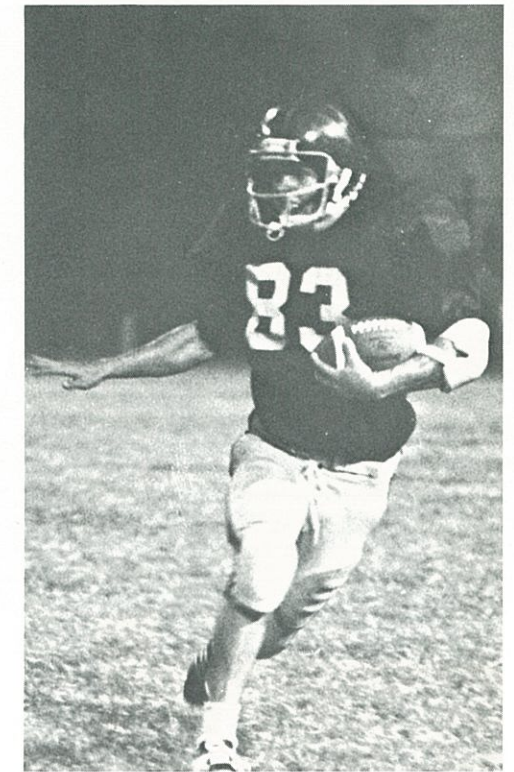

Jackets cited for outstanding performances in the game were: J. Carrasco, R. Valdez, D. Haygood, P. Roark, T. Watson, R. Dymke, P. Partin, M. Taylor, G. Davis and C. Holt.
