

Seniors Leave KHS, Enter New Lives

After 12 years of tiresome and often difficult work, the members of the Class of 1977 have realized that the purpose they have been working toward was not only a high school diploma, but also the insights into life so necessary for a successful future.

Beautiful memories always seem to become more beautiful as the years go by . . . old friends will be remembered, but new friends will be found and they will make the lives of each graduating senior more full as they continue on their journey into life.

The things that were cried over as freshmen are now the same things that were laughed at on graduation night and both memories will be cherished for years to come.

Now is the time for graduates to turn their thoughts away from the halls of KHS and toward the halls of higher learning and the new jobs and new homes that will make up their future.
