

KHS Wins AA UIL Sweepstakes

Members of the Kermit High School literary squad won Sweepstakes at the District 7-AA University Interscholastic League contest held at Midland College. Several of the students who placed at the meet included FRONT ROW (l-r) Julie Smith, Vicki Burkhalter, Pam Pitchford, Jimmie Sterling, Becky Brownlee, Kay Hill, Melanie Helmer, and Tammy Oglesby. BACK ROW (l-r) Glenn Pitchford, Kevin Brewer, Joey Costello, Evans Cooke, Toni Clark, Larry Arguijo, Jayna Franklin, Mike Ortega, Denise Stanley, Cindy Gillespie, and Polly Brown.

In regional competition Joey Costello placed third in sliderule and Julie Smith placed second in feature writing. In state competition Joey placed 9th and Julie placed 7th.

Awaiting results at the Regional Meet at Lubbock are Principal Julian Dawson and Jimmie Sterling.

Really looking like they are having fun at the UIL meet at Texas Tech are (l-r) Jayna Franklin, Denise Stanley and Becky Brownlee.

Looking at various purchases made during slack moments at Tech are Sandy Helmer and Toni Clark.

After winning 3rd in slide rule competition at Tech, Joey Costello takes a few moments to rest.
