

KHS Cagers Score And Score

In the encounter with the Alpine Bucks, Yellow Jacket Cager Bobby Kimball (32) demonstrates his basketball ability — much to the dismay of the visiting Alpine squad.

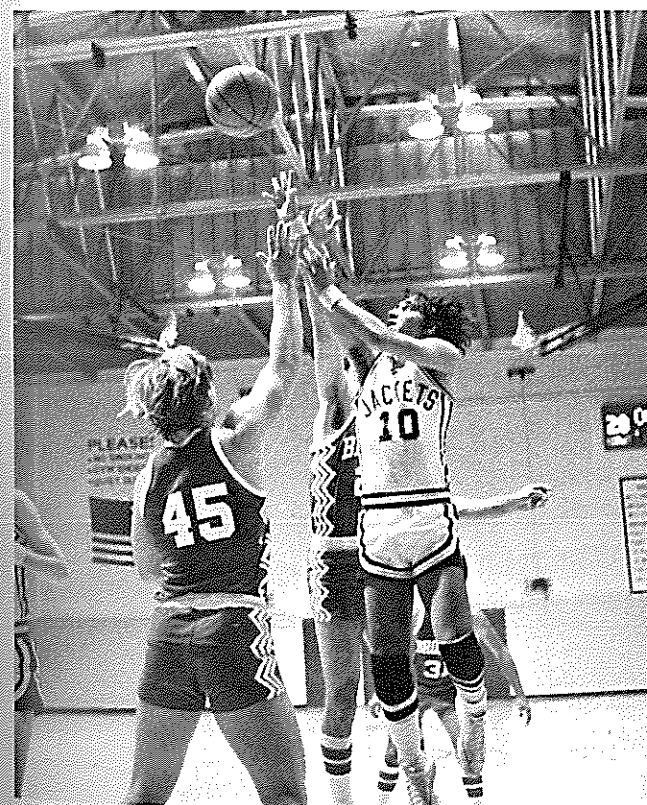

KHS cager Kent Shuler (44) gives the fans and visiting basketball squad a taste of his height and shooting ability. Kent began on the JV, but ended the 1977-78 season on the varsity.

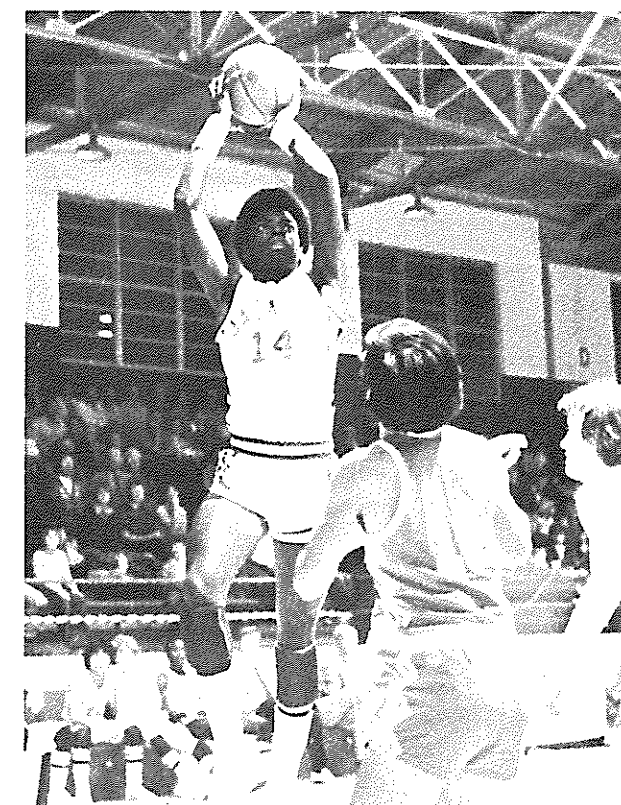

Montie Wren (34) ran into a little heavy traffic under the Jacket goal, but still managed to add two points to the home side of the scoreboard.

Yellow Jacket cager Montie Wren (34) shoots for two points against the Sonora Broncos. Watching are Brent Newman (left) and Scott Edwards.

Joe Dominguez adds two points to the KHS scoreboard against the Broncos, even though he had a little opposition.

Leaping high for two points was Deon Bryant. None of the opposing players seemed inclined to match his leaping skill.

