

Members of the two KJHS choirs presented their play for the junior high school student body. The play was entitled, "The Pied Piper," and was under the direction of Mrs. Joan Beeson.

Choirs Present "The Pied Piper"

The "family" looks on while Debbie Hancock and Connie Creager chase the rats that invaded the village of Hamlin.

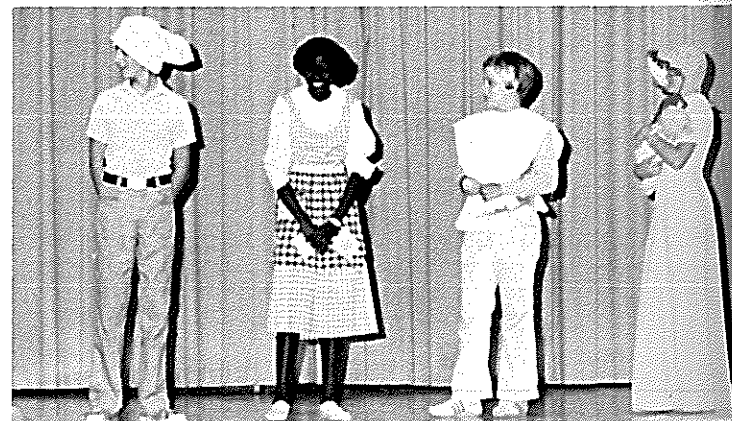

The Pied Piper — Tina Mitchell.

The villagers Lori Campbell, Patty Hathorn and Patti Lewis gripe at the council for their slow parliamentary procedure.

Members of the council included: Coda Stephenson, Donnie Elder, Robert Dolloff, Jeff Norville and the Mayor, Doyle Pruitt.

Complaining about the RATS, Rats, rats were (l-r) the cheese maker James Spivey, dressmaker Lanell Rockwell, village gent Donnie Elder, and village lady Tonia Greer.

