Once again the halls of KHS found new "freshmen" arriving as the 1977-78 school year began.

With constant help and advice from upperclassmen the new "fish" made the transition from 'mighty eighth graders' to the lowest rank of students at high school.

Members of the Class of '81 soon began to excel in both sports and academics.

Often during the lunch period members of the class were seen and heard singing the familiar school song, while assembled at the flag pole.
